of yesterday's disturbed areas, but police patrols promptly checked any attempt at an organized outbreak. The freight and mail train from Belfast to Londonderry was attacked near Carrickmore, County Tyrone, this morning and six cars with their contents were burned and the line torn up at this point.

Rioting broke out in Belfast Sunday morning and continued throughout the day, became so serious this afternoon that the military had to be summoned. Fifteen persons had been killed and nearly 100 wounded.

DUBLIN, July 11.—As the clocks of Dublin struck the hour of noon today, the sound of their bells was drowned by the roar of ship sirens that welcomed the truce between the British forces and the Sinn Feiners.

Citizens gathered excitedly on the corners. Shortly after 12 o'clock, when the armistice became effective, a group of unarmed black and white soldiers from the barracks. In a few moments they were fraternizing with the people, talking eagerly about the prospects of permanent peace.

Soldiers disappeared today and in the place of sentries with fixed bayonets, peaceful looking policemen paced their beats.

Washington, to ascertain the French attitude. The foreign office advised Whitehouse that a reply would be made later. The indications are that France will make reservations regarding the proximity of Germany, and if the conference should consider land disarmament.

By A. L. BRADFORD, United Press Staff Correspondent.
WASHINGTON, July 11.—This government expects a favorable response from all five nations, which received tentative invitations to a disarmament conference in Washington.

The belief was expressed in a highly authoritative quarter today that all the powers invited will send representatives to discuss a cut in the world armaments and navies and to settle questions bearing on the Pacific and Far Eastern problems.

That such an international gathering will secure the peace of the world, was the statement of an official in emphasizing the importance of the step the administration has taken.

It was also explained that while the proposal for the conference was broadened, to include land as well as naval armaments, countries other than the United States, Great Britain and Japan, the principal naval powers were included, and it was indicated that many of the obstacles heretofore in the way of disarmament may be wiped out before the conference actually meets.

YALP MANDATE IS TO BE DISCUSSED.
Officials also said they are not yet clear as to just how soon the conference can be put under way or how it will be organized.

The decision that land armaments be discussed necessitated the invitations to France and Italy, both of which maintain large armies.

The Yalp question, the subject of numerous notes between the United States, Japan and other principal allied powers, has been mentioned one of the things in the way of a disarmament agreement. This may be settled before the disarmament conference. If it is not, it will come up in the conference since relations in the Pacific is one of the subjects in the preliminary call.

The Anglo-Japanese treaty, another thing long bothering to disarmament advocates, will probably await the gathering at the conference, however.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF PROPOSAL.
WASHINGTON, D. C., July 11.—The State Department's official announcement, regarding the proposed disarmament conference, follows:

"By direction of the President, the State Department makes the following announcement:

"The President, in view of the far-reaching importance of the question of limitation of armaments, has approached with informal but definite inquiries the group of Powers heretofore known as the Principal Allied and Associated Powers—that is, Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan—to ascertain whether it would be agreeable to them to take part in a conference on this subject to be held in Washington at a time to be mutually agreed upon. If the proposal is acceptable, acceptable formal invitations for such a conference will be issued.

"It is manifest that the question of limitation of armaments has a close relation to the Pacific and Far Eastern problems, and the President has suggested that the powers especially interested in these problems should undertake, in connection with this conference, the consideration of all matters bearing upon their solution with a view to reaching a common understanding with respect to principles and policies in the Far East. This has been communicated to the powers concerned and China has also been invited to

BACCUS OBTAINS LAST ESTIMATES OF FINANCE NEEDS

Department of Public Works
Budget to Be Pruned, Commissioner Says.

The complete budgets for all the departments of the city government are now in the hands of Commissioner Baccus of the finance department. The delayed estimate of the department of public works was tendered today.

The department of public works last year received $71,716.50. This year it asks $701,904.50. Necessary repairs to public buildings and structures, as well as the demand for comfort stations, are asserted to be prime causes for the bigger demands.

The actual estimate is as follows: Office, $8815; City hall, $69,230; Harbor, $475,607.50; Auditorium, $20,763; City buildings, $117,439; Total $701,904.50.

In the estimate for "city buildings" the foregoing amount of $117,439 means improvements, as maintenance for city hall and auditorium are tabulated as above. The improvements will include:

New structures, $55,000; city hall, $7077; auditorium, $6255; fire buildings, $44,079; personal service and supplies, $4880.

The new structures will include two comfort stations. The fire buildings include several fire houses to replace outworn buildings.

The estimate of the department is about twice what was received last year, in the face of the council's promise to keep the tax rate no higher than last year's.

Baccus, however, has announced that all these hopeful estimates will receive "some pruning."

Legless Man Swims and Athlete Drowns

GILBERT, Minn., July 11.—While Harry Woodward, a good swimmer, was drowning, Roy Rhodda, minus his two wooden legs which became loose when a boat occupied by five men overturned in Ely Lake, swam 300 yards to shore. The others in the boat also reached shore safely. Rhodda told friends that two of his companions utilized the floating wooden legs to aid them to reach the shore.

Pleasanton Suspect Is Arrested Here

Eddie De Vacas, alias Edward La Rue, arrested at Sixteenth street door last night by Patrolman J. N. Ploeg, was turned over to Constable Locke of Pleasanton, where he is wanted in connection with a number of small burglaries. De Vacas was picked up on description telephoned to the police.

During the past year the R. S. P. C. A. secured 3953 convictions for all treatment of animals.

naval program by the five countries which are expected to discuss disarmament, figures today disclosed.

The United States leads, with $500,000,000; Great Britain is second, with $422,000,000; Japan is third, with $250,000,000; France is fourth, with $175,000,000, and Italy is fifth, with $75,000,000.

Completion of the present building program will show the five countries armed on the ocean as follows:

Great Britain, 955 ships.
United States, 608 ships.
Japan, 221 ships.
France, 253 ships.
Italy, 245 ships.

Pacific Fleet Will Be Largest of Peace Times

The battleships New Mexico, Tennessee, Mississippi and the hospital ship Mercy, left today for Bremerhaven, N. Y. The New Mexico and the Mississippi will remain there five days in dry dock undergoing repairs.

The plan that the fleet be re-organized met instant approval, and so the fleet that enters San Francisco bay on or about the first of September will be the most complete that any nation has ever had during the time of peace.

Every vessel, with the exception of the Fenimore, which will remain flagship of the Atlantic fleet, has been ordered to the Pacific fleet.

The plans as to the exact maneuver of the fleet have not been received, but are expected within the next few days.

Farewell visits were made yesterday to the division in the San Francisco bay by several thousands, including one hundred and seventy-five students of the citizens' military training camp in the Presidio.

Three super-dreadnaughts, Nevada, Oklahoma and Arizona will become officially part of the fleet on August 6. The combined cost of these three warships is $50,000,000 and 3000 men are needed to keep the ships in order.

When these vessels enter San Francisco Bay they will be flying under the flag of Rear-Admiral J. S. McKean.

Earl of Craven Falls Overboard In Dark, Drowns

Nobleman-Married Daughter of the Late Bradley Martin, N. Y.

COWES, Isle of Wight, July 11.—(By the Associated Press.) — The Earl of Craven was drowned in the waters of the Solent late Saturday night or early Sunday. He disappeared mysteriously from his yacht during the night and at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon his body was found on the rocks two miles from Cowes.

The Earl of Craven, in 1893, married Miss Cornelia Martin, daughter of the late Bradley Martin of New York.

He was an enthusiastic yachtsman and had taken the Solent Lodge, belonging to the Marchioness of Ormonde, for the Cowes regatta in August. He arrived on board his yacht, the Sylvia, paid a visit to the Royal Yacht squadron and then returned to the yacht.

When his valet visited his cabin yesterday morning he found the earl's bed had not been slept in and it was feared at once that he had fallen overboard from the stern of the vessel, which has no protective rail.

A strong tide runs at the point the Sylvia was moored and it is surmised that after having tripped over a rope or other obstacle and fallen overboard, he was carried away by the current.

SEVEN BOYS HELD ON GIRL'S CHARGE

BERKELEY, July 11.—Seven youths, accused by three young girls, are being held by the police. The affair is the result of investigations by Patrolmen Frank Waterbury and P. J. O'Keefe, following the report of Mrs. Mary Kangas, 2809 Ninth street, three days ago that her two young daughters had been abducted and held captive for several hours by a man who represented himself as a patrolman.

The stories told by the two girls to the police and by another girl who was a chum of the two, and whose name is being withheld by the police because of her age, is said by the police to be one of the most reliable that have come to the attention of the police department.

As a result of the confessions, seven men have been arrested and are held by the police, but have not yet been legally charged with offenses.

Two of the men are said to have committed their crimes against the girls in Contra Costa county, and they will be turned over to officials of that county for prosecution. Sheriff R. R. Veale is in Berkeley investigating, and may take the two men home with him. The other five must be prosecuted in Oakland, say the police, as the crimes were alleged to have been committed there.

Extradition of Mine Promoter Uncertain

Efforts of the Oakland police to have George Graham Rice, mining promoter arrested on a charge of defrauding a number of employees at the California Cotton Mills are dependent upon a decision of the attorney-general on the matter of extradition. According to E. G. Easton, deputy state commissioner of corporations, there is a conflict of opinion whether extradition can be asked for a man not a fugitive from justice.

"If we find that we can extradite Rice," said Easton, "we will go ahead at once and have him brought to Oakland to stand trial."

Rice is charged with selling stock in California without a license.

"Other Women" Are Divorce Complaint

Charging that James G. Rohan, former manager of the Columbia theater and locally known prize fighter, spent his time "drinking and carousing in roadhouses and cafes with females," Mrs. Hazel Rohan today filed a suit for divorce, charging extreme cruelty.

Mrs. Rohan alleges that her gayly-inclined husband did not get home as a rule until 2 a. m. and that other women played a large part in his life.

The couple were married January 16, 1915, and separated June 18, 1921.

Blame for Depression Placed by Witness

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE LEASER WIRE TO TRIBUNE.
WASHINGTON, July 11.—Profiteering by middlemen, speculative gambling, arbitrary restriction of credits by the federal reserve board, exorbitant railroad rates and the breakdown of foreign markets are responsible for agricultural and industrial depression in the United States, Colonel Smith W. Brooks, of Iowa, representing the National Farmers' Union, declared today when the special joint congressional commission opened its probe of agricultural conditions.

Co-operative distribution, prohibition of gambling, freer credits and taxation of war profits were urged as remedies by Brooks.

Proposed Blue Law Hits Trains, Papers

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS LEASER WIRE TO TRIBUNE.
NASHVILLE, July 11.—Enactment of a "Sunday blue law" prohibiting among other things the operation of Sunday trains and excluding Sunday newspapers from the mails, will be urged by the Methodist central Sabbath crusade committee in a petition to be presented to Congress this week, it was announced today by Noah W. Cooper, chairman of the committee. Cooper said the committee, which represents twelve southern conferences, will place a copy of the petition in the hands of every Senator and Representative in Congress.

"IT'S A GIFT!"

It really is, this art of looking cool and nifty, these hot summer days. But it's easily acquired.

It's quite likely that if you ask one of these spic-and-span fellows how he does it you'll find that he's wearing shirts and collars which we have professionally laundered—not merely washed and ironed.

His linen has had the benefit of a process of ours which closes the pores of the fabric, strengthens the fibres, and protects from grit and grime.

And with shirts and collars such as these you'll find it an easy matter to always look your best.

Just send us your bundle and we'll gladly show you. Phone, and our route representative will call.

U. S. WARSHIPS GO BACK TO TAMPICO TO SHIELD RIGHTS

Departure of Vessels for 24 Hours Presumed to Be World Law Dictate.

MEXICO CITY, July 11.—(By the Associated Press).—United States warships, which on Friday were reported to have been withdrawn from Tampico, returned to that port yesterday afternoon. Despatches reaching Mexico City last night said the Sacramento and Cleveland again were anchored at the mouth of the Panuco river, and although no explanation was given for their return it was presumed that the vessels withdrew to the high seas for 24 hours in order to avoid the technicalities of international law and then returned to Tampico.

It is considered not improbable the vessels will continue this maneuver until the situation clears.

Reports from Tampico state that the situation remains quiet and that no disturbance has taken place.

Energetic measures to relieve the condition of unemployed laborers in the Tampico oil fields are being pushed by the government. President Obregon directing the work.

Advices from the oil region told of impending further shut-downs, with the possibility that more than 5000 workers will be dismissed today. Many, in desperate circumstances, are being cared for at the government's expense until transportation can be obtained for them to other parts of the republic, where public work is being carried on.

A statement by President Obregon says the government will make every effort to enforce the constitutional provision for indemnity of three months' pay.

CHICAGO WINS IN CONTEST FOR HOME OF ELKS

Headquarters' Building Will Cost $2,500,000; Order Is Growing.

LOS ANGELES, July 11.—Chicago will be recommended as the location of a permanent national headquarters of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks at tomorrow's session of the Fifty-seventh Grand Lodge of the order, by a committee named to report on the subject, according to a statement issued by grand lodge headquarters here today.

The committee, it was announced, was unanimous in its decision. "As a memorial of the magnitude and character suggested, the committee will point out that it should be located in a city of such size and importance that the largest possible number of people, with a particularly the largest number of members of the order, would have the opportunity to visit it," it was stated. "And it is equally obvious that a large number of people, with a particularly the largest number of members of the order, would have the opportunity to visit it," it was stated.

GROWTH OF ORDER. Transportation and postal facilities were also taken into consideration. The building is to cost approximately $2,500,000. The annual report of Grand Secretary Fred C. Robinson, also to be presented tomorrow, was made public. It shows there are now 1421 lodges of Elks, with a total membership of 707,651. The total assets are $50,463,156.99, and there has been a net increase in the past year of $1,566,234.63.

LETTER FROM HARDING. A letter from President Harding, made public by Grand Exalted Ruler William M. Abbott, to whom it was addressed, is as follows: "My Dear Brother Abbott: I am exceedingly sorry that I am not able to be in attendance at the meeting of the grand lodge of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, to be held in Los Angeles. It would be immensely pleasing to me if I could be with my brother members. In my absence I would like you to express my very cordial greetings to the brethren. I feel especially anxious to have you do so because you were good enough, in your official position, to express to me congratulations of the order over my election to the presidency."

OBREGON FAVORS PROPOSED SENDING OF U. STUDENTS

Exchange Between Mexico and United States Urged in Both Countries.

LOS ANGELES, July 11.—Exchange of students between universities in Mexico and the United States is a plan favored by business and educational workers in both countries, is being encouraged and recommended by President Obregon as a means of bringing about a better understanding between the two nations, according to advices received here.

In a communication from the Mexican president to Nelson B. Rhodes of Los Angeles, a member of the committee having the plan in charge, it is said 150 offers from American universities to Mexican scholars have been received, that many of the opportunities already have been accepted, and that the young Mexicans have been sent to this country to study.

RECOGNIZING the value of complete reciprocity, however, and the advantage of familiarizing the United States' representatives with Mexican history and other subjects, the visitors are to have their fare paid by the Mexican government and to receive the sum of 2000 pesos annually.

BEFORE TRADE BOARDS. The movement was set on foot by the American Chamber of Commerce in Mexico, and has been placed before the National Foreign Trade convention and other commercial organizations in the United States, besides the universities. The executive secretary of the movement in Mexico is O. R. W. Cook, formerly of Los Angeles, a graduate of the University of Southern California.

ALCIBIADES GOES PROWLING, TAKEN IN AS BURGLAR

When James Stewart, 1832 Thirty-ninth avenue, returned to his home last night shortly after 9 o'clock, he heard a burglar in the kitchen. Captain Charles Beck and a squad of policemen responded to the call and surrounded the house. Trade burglar could be heard moving from room to room. When the burglar entered the front room Captain Beck followed with his revolver drawn. "Throw up your hands or I'll shoot!" ordered the captain. The burglar paid no attention to the command, but kept right on prowling about the house. "Turn on the light. It's a cat!" said the captain. Sitting perched on top of a curtain rod in the parlor was Alciades, a black and white tom cat, belonging to Wood Soanes, 2130 man. Alciades was taken home by Captain Beck. Both the captain and Alciades are well known good friends, as he has been in trouble before.

Fur Sealing Resumed On Canadian Coast

VICTORIA, B. C., July 11.—Fur sealing has "come back" again on the coast of Vancouver Island, and this summer it is expected Indians will capture around 2000 fur seals. Polaris sealing is a trade of international scope. Then, through greed and indiscriminate methods of slaughter, the industry declined, the seals all but disappeared and their capture made almost impossible. Last year, it was estimated, the waters of the west coast of Washington produced 1200 animals. Officers in charge of the industry and its control claim that the North Pacific herd, which once numbered as many as 2,500,000 fur seals, will increase rapidly. It is believed to be probable that 100,000 animals may be taken each year, the catch to be made up wholly of surplus males selected with reference to their economic value, and Canada may ultimately receive in the neighborhood of $500,000 annually from the seal fisheries.

Police Seek Arrest Of Richmond Man

RICHMOND, July 11.—The Richmond police are seeking Robert A. Whitney, formerly employed here by the Santa Fe shops, on charges that he issued checks for several local stores. Complaints have been received by C. B. Lavery, R. L. Benton and T. J. Hanna, and it is alleged by the police that several others also cashed checks for which there was no funds in the bank. All the checks were for small amounts, most of them being for $10 or $20, it is said. Hanna also accused Whitney of taking cash checks for which there was no funds in the bank. Whitney was here six months and made many friends. He had cashed checks which had always been good, and this permitted him to live from a "clean up" before leaving town, it is said by the police.

Forest Flames Are Checked Near Chico

CHICO, July 11.—A forest fire which menaced buildings at Richardson Springs, ten miles north of Chico, was checked late last night before it could reach the houses, according to word received here from Fire Warden C. H. Gwynn. The flames were sweeping toward Cohasset when they were subdued.

English Women Find New Way to Hold 'Em Up

LONDON, July 11.—English women are holding 'em up nowadays with horseshoes, tennis racquets and even dogs and birds.

It began when Miss Suzanne Lenglen, French tennis champion, was troubled during a game by persistent refusal of her stockings to stay up.

She invented a garter. Rolling her stockings down to the knee, with a ha' penny—the size of a quarter—in the roll, she twisted the ha' penny about a few times and tucked it in over the roll, next to the knee cap.

The smart shops were quick to seize on the idea and now women are duplicating the ha' penny idea with tiny horseshoes, racquets and other charms in various precious metals and embellished with jewels.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 11.—It is announced that Edwin H. Lemare's farewell concert in San Francisco will be given Tuesday evening, July 13, at the Exposition Auditorium in the Civic Center. In a short time Lemare will leave here for Portland, Me., to give municipal recitals.

The local police are searching for an unidentified man who has been victimizing apartment house keepers in this city by impersonating tenants on the telephone and collecting money for C. O. D. packages. One of the victims was Mrs. Daniel Shenk, 1300 Hyde street, who lost $11 which she paid on a package containing two bricks.

May Evans, alias May Smith, aged 26, and spoken of as the "Queen" of San Francisco, is under arrest today following a raid on a house at 1351 Forty-seventh avenue. She is charged with violation of the state poison act. Two men and one woman, arrested at the same time, have been charged with vagrancy.

Plans are going rapidly forward for the thirty-ninth annual international supreme convention of the Knights of Columbus here August 2, 3 and 4. A meeting of the citizens' committee will be held tonight at the St. Francis Hotel.

A search is being made by police and private detectives for Joseph E. Reddy, clerk in the sales department of the Standard Oil Company, who has been missing since Wednesday. Reddy's home is at 276 Valley street. He is thought to be suffering from amnesia.

Following their annual encampment in Old Bohemian Grove near Casadero, 530 Boy Scouts of San Francisco returned to this city today. Their outing lasted six weeks.

Action was begun today to cut up into small parcels the huge property in Southwestern San Mateo county which the late Loren Coburn, through a lifetime of lawsuits, succeeded in holding. The property was granted to Coburn by the Spanish before California became a state. The Peninsula Farms Company obtained charge of the 35,000 acres Saturday, from C. H. Wideman, who was manager for Coburn during the eccentric millionaire's lifetime.

Police Fire On Two Cigar Store Burglars

Three shots were fired at two burglars who were surprised after they had broken into the cigar store in Nankin & Pitney, 406 Thirtieth street, early Sunday morning. The men were discovered by Policeman W. T. O'Connor and Special Officer Walter Boyne. As the officers approached, the men ran east on 13th street. Three shots were fired by the officers, but the men made their escape.

Concealed Weapons Found on Two Men

Edwin Ferris and Leonard Orr, who were arrested last night in front of the Elmhurst Hotel by Patrolman Thomas Carroll, while operating an automobile with an extra set of license plates, are being held for investigation. Both of the men were armed. Captain of Inspectors Richard McSorley said that charges of carrying concealed weapons will be placed against them.

Cement Patch Saves Berg-Pierced Vessel

NEW YORK, July 11.—Twenty-eight days after a large hole had been stove in her starboard bow when she struck an iceberg off the Grand Banks, Newfoundland, the three-masted Danish bark Adler, made port with a patch of wood and cement, hastily rigged at sea, supporting the crushed timbers.

The crew pumped out water, but to elevate the damaged part of the ship and then built a case eight feet long and four feet wide, which they filled with cement. This they made fast with wooden wedges in the hole torn by the iceberg.

Soviet Food Agents Killed by Peasants

ALMOND TARIFF TO BE DISCUSSED AT CONFERENCE

Head of Exchange and Governor Will Outline Plan to Reach Congress.

LOS ANGELES, July 11.—Governor William D. Stephens today received a telegram from the California Almond Growers' Exchange of San Francisco, that P. B. Hamilton would arrive in Los Angeles this afternoon for conferences with the governor on the tariff situation. It is expected that the conferences will take place tomorrow.

The almond growers' exchange, representing 40,000 growers and 100,000 acres of cultivated lands, are preparing for an energetic campaign at Washington, D. C. for amendment of tariff schedules affecting almonds.

A tariff of five cents on unshelled and fifteen cents on shelled almonds is demanded. The future of the industry is declared to be at stake.

The Sacramento chamber of commerce is actively cooperating with the exchange. Other handlers of commerce, to whom appeals for support have been sent, include Los Angeles, San Francisco, Long Beach, Oakland and San Jose.

Nome Bank Reported On Solid Foundation

NOME, July 11.—Citizens thoroughly investigated and found the Miners and Merchants Bank on a solid foundation. As a result of the investigation, the state bank examiner, the Miners and Merchants Bank has assets of $250,000 over and above their liabilities. As a final proof of confidence the citizens of Nome pledged a fund of one hundred thousand dollars to back up the bank.

Nome has been very active since the arrival of the first boat. Many miners, who left Nome fifteen years ago with fortunes, have returned on account of a run of hard luck in the states, to seek another fortune.

Builders' Exchange Men Enter Demurrer

SAN FRANCISCO, July 11.—Chas. W. Gompertz, president of the Builders' Exchange, and W. H. George, chairman of the conference committee of the exchange, appeared today before Police Judge McAtee, in connection with the charges against them of violating the Cartwright Act. Arguments were scheduled on the demurrer interposed by their counsel, Attorney John S. Partridge. Judge McAtee was in some doubt as to whether a demurrer could be interposed to an information in the police court. Partridge argued that it could, but there was a question in the mind of Assistant District Attorney Milton U'Ren and the matter went over until Thursday.

Army Nurses Will Receive Diplomas in S. F. Thursday

MAJOR JULIA C. STIMSON, superintendent of the Army Nurse Corps and dean of Army School of Nursing, who will arrive tomorrow to attend the commencement ceremony at the Letterman General Hospital, San Francisco, at which a class of 518 nurses will be graduated.

Surgeon-General to Officiate in Program at Letterman General Hospital.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 11.—One hundred and eight members of the graduating class of the United States Army School of Nursing will receive diplomas next Thursday at the Letterman General Hospital in San Francisco. This is the second unit of a class of 518, the other 410 receiving their diplomas at the Walter Reed General Hospital in Washington, D. C.

Major-General Mariette W. Ireland, surgeon-general of the army, is to arrive here Tuesday to officiate at the commencement exercises. He is accompanied by Major Julia C. Stimson, superintendent of the army nurse corps and dean of the Army School of Nursing, and Miss Annie Goodrich, inspector of the nursing service in army hospitals.

The first event in the commencement program will be the valedictory sermon tomorrow morning, which will be delivered by Chaplain Dr. Frederick Clappett in the grove of cedars in the outdoor amphitheater at the Presidio. Wednesday the graduates will have a lawn fete and a party in the sole remaining

MOVIE MAGNATES NAMED IN GIRL, WINE SCANDAL

Mentioned in Case Against District Attorney Charged With Taking Bribe.

By J. J. ROWLANDS, United Press Staff Correspondent. HOLLYWOOD, July 11.—The names of several prominent movie magnates today were dragged into the case of District Attorney Tufts of Middlesex county, whom Attorney-General Allen seeks to have removed from office.

Special Assistant Attorney-General Henry Huribut, making his opening statement to the five Supreme Court justices who are hearing the case, made the following allegations:

1. That $100,000 "hush money" was extracted from guests who attended a girl and wine dinner at Midwayman Manor, Woburn, to protect them from exposure. It is charged Tufts was involved in this.

2. That the bill for the dinner—$100—was paid by the Paramount Moving Picture Company and was approved by Hiram Abrams, official of that company, who, with Adolph Zukor, well-known movie magnate, is alleged to have been at the feast.

Huribut, in discussing the charge that $100,000 hush money was obtained, told of various checks that changed hands after conferences in which Daniel H. Coakley, prominent Boston attorney, and others were leading figures.

"We are unable," Huribut said, "to trace any part of the $100,000 directly as having been paid to Tufts, but we will produce evidence which we will say will raise a strong suspicion that he allowed himself to be influenced to help his friend Coakley and to the great injury of the public."

Huribut said that the revels at Midwayman Manor followed a dinner at a fashionable Boston hotel in honor of "Fatty" Arbuckle on the night of March 6, 1917. The revels were arranged by someone unknown to him, he said.

Huribut asserted that "Brownie" Kennedy, owner of the Manor, brought fifteen or sixteen young girls to the party.

On May 11, while he was in Portland, Me., Abrams received a telephone call from James M. Curley, then mayor of Boston, Huribut said, in which Curley notified Abrams to return to Boston at once, as a serious matter was about to develop, and to bring an attorney with him.

Thursday afternoon the graduates will march in ceremonial procession to the platform, headed by Major-General Ireland, Major Stimson, the ranking officers and the graduate nurses. The exercises will be presided over by Col. James M. Kennedy, commanding officer of Letterman General Hospital.

SIX DIE IN FIRE AS AEROPLANE HITS 16 AUTOS

Army Officers On the Way to Investigate Crash At Langley Field.

MOUNDSVILLE, W. Va., July 11.—Army officials from Washington and Dayton, O., flying field were on route here today to conduct an official investigation into an airplane accident yesterday which took a toll of six lives, injured more than a score and destroyed sixteen automobiles.

The accident occurred when a giant Martin bombing plane, taking off from the local field, plunged into a line of parked automobiles. One of the gasoline tanks of the bomber exploded, spreading fire over the cars. Most of the dead and injured were caught in the burning machines.

Lieutenant M. C. MacIver and Lieutenant E. H. Danton were in the airplane. They escaped with slight injuries. Neither was arrested.

VAIN ATTEMPT TO LAND.

Lieutenant MacIver had risen about thirty feet when the plane swung sharply to the left and seemed about to strike a hangar and an apparent effort was made to throw the plane into the Ohio river, on MacIver's left, but the machine was flying too low and crashed into a number of automobiles parked along the bank.

But forty feet from where the plane came to a halt was a shed containing 2000 pounds of dynamite. The dynamite was rescued from their wrecked machine.

Some spectators said the airplane swerved into the automobiles when only nine feet above the ground. The airplane tore through the automobiles, crushing them and their occupants, and as it came to a rest, the fuel tank exploded, showering burning gasoline over the wreckage for an area of fifty feet.

MOTOR MISSIN GEIR, CLAIM.

The spectators who escaped the tragedy declare that the left motor of the airplane was not "hitting" properly, causing the machine to swerve from its course and dart into the autos.

Mrs. Long, one of the dead, was almost strangled.

The dead, so far identified, are: Fred Edge, 46, of Round Bottom; Robert Hartzell, 13, Moundsville, now boy.

Mrs. George Long, 65, Moundsville.

James Pettit, 15, Moundsville.

The plane, which was one of the largest in the army aviation service, was en route from Dayton, Ohio, to Washington. It was delivered from the manufacturers last Friday. The flight here was suspended Saturday because of a heavy storm.

TOPS PROTECT SOME.

There was no warning to the crowd gathered beneath the machine and even had there been they could not have escaped so quickly did the huge bomber drop.

Some of the twenty-five machines beneath had their tops raised, which is believed to have prevented further loss of life.

The clouds of smoke and gas issuing from the burning plane and automobiles made impossible any attempt at rescue of those beneath the machine.

Witnesses to the accident were unable to approach until the cars and plane were nothing but twisted masses of metal.

H. L. Lambert was circling the field when the crash occurred. He attempted to drag a man pinned underneath one of the cars to safety, but he was too firmly wedged beneath the smashed cars. Lambert continued his efforts until he was badly burned about the hands and face.

In the interval between the explosion and the burst of flames from the wreckage several persons were able to crawl to safety, which further reduced the number of casualties.

Others who were knocked down but not severely injured were dragged to safety by spectators.

The second and third tanks exploded shortly after the first, adding fuel to the flames. The heat from the blaze made rescue out of the question, and the spectators stood by helpless while sixteen of the automobiles burned.

Two Are Killed in Crash of Motor Cars

TOPEKA, Kas., July 11.—A collision near here today, in which two motor cars, six cases of dynamite and a large quantity of nitro glycerine figured, brought death to M. A. Ross, an oil well shooter, and his wife and the injury of four other persons. The explosive played only a minor part in the tragedy, though it was scattered along the highway for a considerable distance it failed to explode. The victims were killed and injured by the crash of the machines.

Sacramento Builders Reject Cut in Wages

SACRAMENTO, July 11.—Eight labor unions of this city have rejected the proposal of the Sacramento Builders' Exchange for a reduction of from 50 cents to $1 a day in the wages of building trades mechanics. It was announced today.

The proposed wage cut, rejected labor unions said, because of the refusal of contractors to rebate wages which they would save under a reduction of wages at this time. By rebating they mechanics said they meant that in cases where contractors have let contracts according to the present wage scale, that they should deduct from the contract price the sum which they will save through wage reduction.

"In other words, we want the man for whom the job is being done to profit by the wage reduction and not the contractor," said a prominent labor official.

Inventor's Work Is Praised by Edison

NEW YORK, June 11.—Thomas A. Edison paid high tribute to the work of Professor Francis Bacon Crocker, world famous electrical engineer, who died Saturday night. The inventor said the entire world owed Professor Crocker a debt of gratitude.

Professor Crocker's most important contribution to the electrical industry was the commercial motor.

During the war he made many discoveries bearing on the curvature of airplane wings. With the Cooper Hewitt he invented the first helicopter in this country which was able to fly.

He was a former president of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers.

Women are stated to be fonder of morbid stage plays than are men.

Alkali In Soap Bad For The Hair

Soap should be used very carefully, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it. The best thing for steady use is Mulsified coconut oil shampoo (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonful of Mulsified will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff, and excess oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Mulsified coconut oil shampoo at any pharmacy; it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months. Be sure your druggist gives you Mulsified.—Advertisement.

Swimming Contests Draw Society South

A surprise is in store for swimming devotees who are to gather at Del Monte this week-end. It is to be the nature of a wedding and the nuptials of a prominent swimmer and San Francisco belle will be solemnized near the Roman plunge. On that date the Olympic club and Del Monte teams are to vie for honors. The names of the prospective bridegroom and bride-to-be are being withheld by those in charge of the ceremonies for the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart S. Hawley and Mrs. H. A. Mosher of Oakland enjoyed a fishing cruise in The Idler from Stillwater Cove at Pebble Beach. They made a big catch of deep sea fish and enjoyed a fish dinner at the Del Monte lodge where they are guests.

Mrs. A. L. Cheney and party have arrived from Los Angeles at the Del Monte lodge. Mr. and Mrs. Cheney have a home site at Pebble Beach and intend to build a forest bungalow shortly.

Mrs. Elliott Brown and party, and Mrs. J. L. Lewis of San Francisco are at the Del Monte lodge.

Much interest is taken by swimming enthusiasts in the coming of the Yale University team for a meet at Del Monte July 19.

GUESTS HERE FROM OHIO.

Mrs. George Jensen is entertaining as her house guest Mrs. John Gilchrist of Ohio, and her daughter, Jane Gilchrist. Mrs. Gilchrist is recuperating from an illness, and though not accepting any social affairs from her friends here, will be entertained with week-end trips while a guest at the Jensen home.

Laurel Branch of the Baby Hospital Association met a few days ago to plan a booth for the coming fair. Basketry and porch furnishings are the specialty of this particular branch. Last week they were entertained by Mrs. Harry Heasley Fair at the Berkeley Tennis Club. Mrs. Moylan Fox is president of the branch.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ellis de Golia gave a dinner party Sunday evening at their home on Broadway Terrace. The special guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Ellis de Golia, of New York. Mrs. Parker is a sister of Mr. de Golia.

WEDDING IS ON SATURDAY AFTERNOON

Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock Miss Anita K. Courtney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Courtney of Dana street, was married to Douglas E. Evans of Butte county. Seventy-five relatives and close friends were witnesses to the service.

The bride is a graduate of San Francisco State Normal School. Mr. and Mrs. Evans will reside in Butte county.

Visitors to Claremont soon will be

Mr. and Mrs. William Axelsson of Minnesota, who are to be the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Quincy McBride. Mr. and Mrs. McBride are sisters. Recently Mr. and Mrs. McBride have had at their home Mrs. J. N. McBride and her daughter, Lois and son Dunbar McBride, who have gone south on a visit.

NAVAL OFFICER'S WIFE HERE

In naval circles the arrival of Mrs. Curtis Boyd Munger, wife of Dr. Munger, U. S. N., is of interest. For two years Dr. Munger was in the navy service. Since the war he has been stationed at the United States Naval Base hospital at Norfolk. He is to be assigned to the U. S. S. California. Mrs. Munger will be here for some time.

MALLEY-GERNREICH HOME WEDDING

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Malley of this city was the scene of an unusually pretty home ceremony Wednesday evening, when Miss Grace Gertrude Malley became the bride of George William Gernreich, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gernreich of this city. Rev. Father F. X. Morrison of St. Francis de Sales church officiated. While Frank Malley gave his daughter in marriage. About seventy-five of the close friends and relatives were guests at the home reception and wedding dinner. The living room was the scene of the nuptials, an arch of gladiolas, roses, palms and ferns was constructed, beneath which the couple plighted their troth.

The bride's gown was of lace over white satin trimmed in pearls. Her bridal veil, the same worn by her mother at her marriage years ago, was arranged with a wreath of orange blossoms. Lilies of the valley, butterfly orchids and gardenias were combined in the shower bouquet.

Miss Grace Gernreich, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor and wore pink satin and georgette with a large picture hat, and carried a handsome shower bouquet.

The coterie of bridesmaids numbered Miss Evelyn White, Miss La Vern Oxley, Miss Dorothy Oxley and Mrs. Charles Malley. Miss Carmen Oxley served as bearer of the ring. Frank O'Connor of this city was best man and the ushers were Ray Moody and Charles Malley, brother of the bride.

The bridesmaids wore organdie dresses in pastel shades and picture hats. All carried large organdie flowers combined with maiden hair fern.

The bride was a student at the Technical High, and has been the motif for many affairs up to the time of her marriage.

Gernreich also attended Technical High and during the war served in the navy. The couple have motored to Los Angeles and the honeymoon and will occupy an attractive apartment here on their return.

"Black Billy Sunday" Starts Revival Here

"Black Billy Sunday," colored evangelist, opened his campaign, which will continue for several weeks in Oakland yesterday at the Beth Eden Baptist church. The subject of his morning sermon was "Old-Time Religion," and in the afternoon he preached on "Which Shall It Be, Revival or Revolution?" Last night his text was "Great is the Mystery of Godliness." The evangelist's name is J. Gordon McPherson.

Domestic economy was introduced as a lesson into English schools in 1874.

CHARLES MALLEY, MISS GRACE GERNREICH, the bride, who was Miss Gertrude Malley; MISS LA VERN OXLEY, MISS DOROTHY OXLEY and CARMEN OXLEY, ring bearer. The marriage was an event of last Wednesday evening at the Malley home in Lakeshore avenue. Rev. F. X. Morrison of St. Francis de Sales Church officiated. (Maurice Stewart Photo)

Blind Coffee Taster Is Cranky About a 'Good Cup'

Fourteen years ago nine blind men and women were assembled by one of the largest tea and coffee houses in the west for the purpose of training them to become coffee testers. Failure to qualify caused one after another to drop out. Today only one is left. She is the only woman in the United States, probably the only one in the world, who makes a profession of testing coffee. She is Miss Anna Mast of 2311 Florence street, Berkeley.

Miss Mast has been totally blind since she was 15 years old. She has a brother, William, who is almost blind. He also was one of the original nine and made together for thirteen years. But nine months ago, because of failing health, the brother dropped out. He was able to see sufficiently to pilot himself and sister away across the bay to San Francisco. They worked every morning. Now, because of the added responsibility of being the only tester, Miss Mast goes but three times a week. She does not wish to run any danger of spoiling her acquired taste by testing too often. She has an escort to and from her work.

When asked how she learned her work, Miss Mast said:

"At first, of course, we knew nothing more about coffee than the average person. We were given a cup of coffee and told it was Mocha, or that it was Java, or Guatemala coffee. We learned the distinct taste of each one. It took study, thought and continual trying; the taste has to be acquired. After the different kinds could be distinguished, one from another, blends were learned. There are probably about five hundred different kinds of coffee, and each kind has many grades. For example, a Java may be excellent, it may be very good, good, medium good, only fair, poor or very poor. The beans may have been picked when too green. I am supposed to know just what is the matter with the coffee if it does not come up to the standard claimed for it. There may be some foreign substance in the coffee. It is my business to find that out."

Miss Mast tastes all coffee before it is purchased by her firm, and her judgment is final in its acceptance or rejection. In fact, it is this little blind woman who puts the price on coffee.

There is the difficult task of testing blends. When a cup is given to her, she knows just how many kinds of coffee are blended together, what they are and the approximate percentage of each.

"And don't you just hate coffee by this time? I should think you would be off of it for life."

Miss Mast laughed. "No, indeed. I don't. I like my cup of coffee in the morning and enjoy it as much as any one. It's the most delightful beverage, only, maybe I'm a little cranky on the subject of good coffee."

Coolidge and Wife Guests At Luncheon

WASHINGTON, July 11.—The Vice-President and Mrs. Coolidge were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. McLean at luncheon yesterday at their country home at Friendship.

Fruit Cars Moving State Crops Rapidly

SACRAMENTO, July 11.—(Ore)ous fruit is moving to the Eastern markets from California in about twice the volume it did in 1920, according to figures compiled by the California Fruit Distributors.

On July 1 2222 cars had been moved this season, compared with 1246 at the same time last year.

Pears are the principal crop being shipped at present, the Burbank and Santa Rosa varieties predominating.

The early peach movement has ended and Elbertas will not be ready for the market for another week.

American in Jail Wins Hunger Strike

WARSAW, July 11.—Royal C. Keely, an American civil engineer, serving a two-year prison sentence in Soviet Russia; won out recently when he went on a hunger strike against solitary confinement. In an appeal for food Keely wrote that he had been assigned to work in a Soviet factory as a mechanic. Keely is held because of his views on Bolshevism, expressed after an inspection trip through the country at the invitation of the soviet. His two-year sentence dates from May 20, 1920.

Liquor Smuggling in Bermuda Under Ban

HAMILTON, Bermuda, July 11.—The colonial parliament has just passed a special law to prevent liquor smuggling from Bermuda to the United States. Anyone putting intoxicants aboard a vessel bound to American ports incurs a fine of £25 and the penalty for a second offense is £50. Local dealers who are found to be in connivance with the law-breakers are penalized and may be deprived of their licenses.

This law, which is now in effect, was brought about thanks to the reckless manner of carrying on illicit operations during the past year.

Insanity, Say Tenants.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 11.—While tenants at her apartment house declare that she is insane at erratic and Detective T. J. Bailey working on the theory of premeditated murder, Mrs. Helen Burke, the quiet, delicate little woman who fired four shots into her husband back Saturday night, is still baffling the police in their efforts to find a motive for the crime. Other than to say that she shot him in self-defense, Mrs. Burke refused to make any further statements to the police.

win S. Burke, a former special policeman, but employed lately as municipal gardener in Oakland, she returned Saturday night. She then calmly telephoned her husband and told him she was home. Her husband went to the picture show and asked the landlady, Miss D. Brady, if her children had returned from the motion picture show. According to her, Mrs. Burke told her that Miss Brady would care for them until she returned.

SURRENDERED HERSELF.

Then she walked to the Hall Justice and surrendered herself to the police.

"The worst shot and killed my husband," she said quietly.

"The woman and her husband are not live together, yet he supports her, her 3-year-old child, Jean Claire, and the woman's 14-year-old son, Kenneth McDonald, say the police.

She divorced McDonald in 1911. She lives with her former San Francisco fireman, and in 1911 for cruelty.

Premeditated murder is shown

she purchased a revolver two weeks ago for $25 when she had very little money and had it delivered to Oakland instead of to her address.

When she walked out on Flennor street with her husband on Saturday night, the woman told the police that her husband knew she had an automatic revolver in her hand wrapped in the paper it had been delivered in. She said he taunted and goaded her with threats of abuse and asked her why she could not leave him. She said that he continually abused her and quarreled with her in public places.

ACTED QUEER. IS CLAM.
Miss Brady, landlady of the apartment house at which Mrs. Burke lived, said today:

"Mrs. Burke has been living here times. Tenants have told me that she labored under the impression that she was under the influence of a doctor or physician.

Landlady Loses $750
Ring in S. F. Fire

SAN FRANCISCO, July 11.—Following a fire in the apartment house at 1849 Page street, shortly before noon, Mrs. Mayur, who was reported to detective headquarters that she had been robbed of a diamond ring valued at $750. At the first alarm, Mrs. Mayur, who lives in the apartment and fled the premises. When she returned she missed the pin. The bludge originated in the janitor's quarters, where Mrs. Mayur lives in the apartment. The damage was slight.

Uncle Wiggily Stories

By HOWARD R. GARDNER

Uncle Wiggily and Baby Bunty started off.

UNCLE WIGGILY AND THE TURNUIPS.

"Oh, Uncle Wiggily," called Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy one morning, as the muskrat lady housekeeper saw the bumpy gentleman hopping down off the front steps of the hollow stump bungalow. "Oh, Uncle Wiggily, if you have nothing better to do I wish you would take this piece of stove pipe to the plumber's and have it mended. There's a hole in it and all the smoke comes out in my kitchen."

Uncle Wiggily looked at the piece of black stove pipe which Miss Fuzzy Wuzzy had been given.

"Won't I get all black soot if I carry that?" asked Mr. Longears.

"Oh, no!" laughed Nurse Jane. "I cleaned out all the soot with the dusting brush. Besides, this carries you around the pipe and you will not even soil your pink, twinkling nose."

"Then I'll take it," said Uncle Wiggily. "I mean I'll take the pipe, for I have to take my nose with me anyhow."

"And while you're about it, I wish you'd take these turnips from our garden over to Mrs. Bow Wow, the doctor lady. She's been sick and just pulled them, and Jackie and Peetie are very fond of turnip ice cream."

"Well," slowly answered Uncle Wiggily. "I'd like to do as you ask, Nurse Jane, but I don't see how I can carry both the turnips and the stove pipe."

"I'll help you!" cried a jolly voice, and all came running. Baby Bunty, the little rabbit girl, who was always wanting Uncle Wiggily to tag her.

"How can you help?" asked Nurse Jane. "You had better run away and play with your mud doll or rag pipe, Baby Bunty."

Of course Nurse Jane meant rag doll and mud pies, but she sometimes talked twisted when she was excited.

"Oh, I can so help Uncle Wiggily!" exclaimed Baby Bunty. "He can't carry the stove pipe and the turnips, he says to him that I'll let him take one of my roller skates. He can take the round, black stove pipe on my skate and pull it along on the wheels. And I can help him carry the turnips."

"So you can, Baby Bunty!" said the old rabbit gentleman. "Hurrah! It's all right now, Nurse Jane. I'll take your stove pipe and have it mended, and then I'll take the turnips to Mrs. Bow Wow. Come along, Baby Bunty."

The little rabbit girl hastened to get her roller skate and soon, with the stove pipe tucked under this and the basket of hard, round red and white turnips, Uncle Wiggily and Baby Bunty started off over the fields and through the woods.

Uncle Wiggily took just like a Fourth of July cannon, doesn't it, Nurse Jane?" asked Baby Bunty, as she hopped along.

"Yes," answered Mr. Longears. "it does for cannon fire round and black and have a big hole for the cannon balls to come out."

"And we can make believe the turnips are cannon balls," went on Baby Bunty.

"Yes," agreed Mr. Longears, "but we won't have to pretend anything like that."

And on, over the fields and through the woods went Uncle Wiggily and Baby Bunty, the little rabbit girl running ahead. And all of a sudden, as she ran up a little hill, she slipped, and then she came hurrying back to the bumpy gentleman.

"Oh, Uncle Wiggily!" gasped Baby Bunty. "What you think?"

"What?" asked Uncle Wiggily. "Down at the bottom of the hill," went on Baby Bunty, "are the old Fuzzy Fox and the Woolly Wolf. They're waiting there to catch us!"

Uncle Wiggily looked up at the top of the hill. Surely enough, there sat the Fox and Wolf.

"Dear me!" said the rabbit gentleman. "This is too bad! I wonder how we can make them go away so we may hop on to the plumber's with the stovepipe and to Mrs. Bow Wow's with the turnips? I wonder how?"

"I know!" suddenly whispered Baby Bunty. "I saw a white arrow that safely stove pipe looked like a cannon. Now, let's make believe it is, and shoot the turnip cannon balls through it at the bad Fox and Wolf!"

"Oh, Uncle Wiggily!" said Uncle Wiggily. "The stove pipe cannon, of the roller skate wheels, was hauled to the top of the hill, the black mouth pointing at the Fox and Wolf. Then Uncle Wiggily and Baby Bunty, taking turnips, threw them through the back hole of the stove pipe like cannon balls. One shot the hard, round turnips, banging the Fox and Wolf on their noses and heads.

"Wow! Wow!" howled the bad animals, as the turnip cannon balls hit them. "Some one is shooting us! I guess we had better run and not stay here any longer for Uncle Wiggily. Wow! Wow!"

Then away they ran, and Baby Bunty laughed like anything. Then she and Uncle Wiggily went safely down the hill, picked up the turnips and took them to Mrs. Bow Wow, who made them into ice cream. The stove pipe was soon mended and taken back to Nurse Jane.

"And all in all I had a very nice adventure," laughed Mr. Longears. So the Fox and Wolf didn't nibble the bumpy gentleman's ears any more.

City on Geraldine's Shoulder

Listen, World!

Catherine Rodgers is complaining that her husband doesn't "get on." He's sitting at the same old job he held when they were married fifteen years ago and there seems to be no chance for advancement. A contempt for him is beginning to determine her love. "A good man can't be kept down," says she and wonders why she threw her life away on a failure.

A lot of our most honored precepts are verbal silliness and that "good man" axiom is one of the silliest and most cruel. It is written at a time when anyone could get enough credit to set up a corner grocery, and it has no application nowadays. A good man can be kept down and by a score of reasons. His grandfather is apt to be the most potent reason. If you don't choose your grandfather wisely it's almost impossible to get on. Wealth, environment, responsibilities, all may grind him into a rut. He may be truly good, patient, kind, industrious, sincere, honest, and yet the peculiar vital element which makes for success in the modern business world.

Yes, it's a silly axiom, and "getting on" is a cheap test by which to judge the worth of a man's spirit. Some day we'll all go fishing. Some day we'll all go fishing. Some day we'll all go fishing.

That woman should be put in the madhouse. "Oh! Temporarily insane! Bosh! Anyone who will beat a helpless child and blame it on nerves is just a plain coward. There was a time when I was obliged to earn a living for two babies and three adults. Until that time I had never known how to work, but I learned. And I had no time to think about 'remaining respectable.' I just played the game square. All the rest or out-let my tired nerves had was a good laugh at baby when she kicked her bath water all over the floor and I had to mop it up. And when I finished that I was going to take a few doses of the medicine that 'A Psychologist' needs to tone up her tired nerves and help her to keep respectable."

But I hope it makes her fighting mad. But I'm leaving it to God to see if that helpless little creature is near her who she does read it. That woman should be put in the madhouse. "Oh! Temporarily insane! Bosh! Anyone who will beat a helpless child and blame it on nerves is just a plain coward. There was a time when I was obliged to earn a living for two babies and three adults. And when I finished that I was going to take a few doses of the medicine that 'A Psychologist' needs to tone up her tired nerves and help her to keep respectable."

There's a Big Hunch in the midst of the following conversation. Read it. I'll tell you about it.

Dear Jerry:

The person who signs himself "a constant reader of the Jerry column," lives in the nineteenth century. Talk about girls with rolled socks and bare knees—they are just as human and good as these home girls. I am not going to say all girls are like these home girls. I am not going to say all girls are like these home girls. I am not going to say all girls are like these home girls.

Well, Charley wear going to have frank fortifiers & liver worst & slaw & potato salad & ice cream & cake & coffee & of course home brew & I laid out yest, and stayed home all day and while we was eating our dinner Grace says something about giving a party & I says we ain't got no money to throw a way on no party & she says well if I can't get no money I can't go to no more party because I will be a shamed of my self and I says Well I guess people been to our house as much as I been to theirs & Grace says yes but they just come here uniformly & not no regular invitation a fare and we haven't gave no regular card party with prizes and refreshments & I says I guess the people that have come here evenings have got more refreshments than we got to there house when they was giving parties but she says how you want argue with you and if you want give me no money to have a party we will just half to quit going to other people's houses and eat it like she says well suppose you give a party who would you ast to it and she says why the Carrys and the Curtises that had us to there house and then she says well if you want give me no money to have a party we will just half to quit going to SUMMER SCHOOL STUDENTS TAUGHT ART OF DANCING

Courses Are Given in Gracful Posing by Teacher From Los Angeles.

BERKELEY, July 11.—Students of the Summer Session of the University of California this season, who scope of instruction is furnished than in former years. Not only are they taught how to dance gracefully, but emphasis is placed upon how to achieve success in the theatrical profession. The courses are under the direction of Miss Genevieve Kelso, a dancer and theatrical manager.

Miss Kelso for two years was manager of the Marion Morgan Dancers, one of the best known companies of dancing artists in the theatrical world, and is equipped with experience to teach the practical side of her art. She is a gifted dancer and has appeared professionally in the role of a star.

The dancer came to Berkeley from Los Angeles, where she is an instructor in the physical education department of the Los Angeles public schools. Her courses in dancing have proved to be among the most popular in the Summer Session.

Zita Still Has Hopes of Becoming Empress

PARIS, July 11.—"Cherchez la femme"—that old French proverb has never so much during the recent attempt of Charles of Hungary to regain his throne in Budapest. It was stated that only one person knew of his coup d'etat and that only one person was prepared to back him. That person was Empress Zita of Bourbon Parme, Charles's wife. In Switzerland Charles and his wife became known as the young couple who considered one of the prettiest monarchs of Europe. Unfortunately she has high ambitions and thirsts for luxury and in the life which she has had in Switzerland since her exile. Thus she was goaded to persuade Charles to make his bold bid for his crown. She is considered the most interesting figure in the current interest in her five children. Today she has not given up hope of returning to Hungary as queen of that country.

Campbell Named for Reclamation Board

LOS ANGELES, July 11.—Governor Stephens today appointed J. P. Campbell of Colusa, to take the place of Frank Freeman on the reclamation board. Freeman resigned a few days ago.

Mexico Claims U. S. Holds Pacific Islands Illegally

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., July 11.—Contentions upon which Mexico may base her claims to a number of islands just off the coast of California in the Pacific ocean, which are now occupied by Americans and are under the control of the United States, are summed up in a report made to President Obregon by the Mexican ambassador, General Aguirre, sub-secretary of agriculture and chief of the commission making a study of the islands, according to an account in Excelsior, published in Mexico City. The report declares that the claim of Mexico to the islands is indisputable, but that the Mexican government is willing for the islands to remain under the American flag in return for foreign credit, the amount of which was not stipulated.

Included in the group of islands is Santa Catalina, of which William Wrigley Jr., of Chicago, is the sole owner. Others are the Farallones, San Miguel, Santa Rosa, Santa Veracruz, Anacapa, Santa Barbara, San Nicolas and San Clemente.

NOT U. S. DISCOVERY

The arguments of General Aguirre in favor of Mexico's claims to the islands, as published in Excelsior, are:

"The United States is not occupying them by right of discovery, because they were discovered in the 15th century by the Spanish navigator Cabrilho, who gave them the names which they now bear.

"They are not occupied by right of purchase, as Mexico has never sold them to any foreign nation.

"They are not occupied by right of conquest, for they were never conquered.

"They are not occupied by right of territorial jurisdiction, because the international code of the United States sets the principle that the territorial jurisdiction of a nation can not extend farther than a league from shore, and the islands in question are at a greater distance from the shore of the United States.

"The international code of the United States relates to the right of conquest by stating that not all territory conquered belongs to the conqueror, but only that part assigned by definite stipulations of duly authorized treaties.

Further proof of the claim of Mexico to the islands is cited in the decree of the queen of Spain in 1826, declaring that in the future all possessions of the Kingdom of Spain belonged to the Republic of Mexico, a sovereign nation. For many years, Mexico actually exercised control over the islands. It is asserted in substantiation of the assertion that Mexico exercised dominion over the islands, it is pointed out that a decree was issued June 20, 1828, authorizing the governor of California to make grants of land to the islands to Mexicans, according to the stipulations of the law of August 18, 1824, and that the titles to parts of the islands granted to Castillero and Cortez in 1828 were valid. The titles were later decreed by President Santa Anna in November, 1853, by President Alvarez in July, 1864, and by President Comfere March 10, 1867.

It is stated by Excelsior that President Obregon may include the matter in General Aguirre's report in future negotiations between the United States and Mexico toward the accomplishment of a proposed 'Treaty of Friendship and Commerce.'

News Notes of the City of Hayward

Police Hunt Thief That Made Haul

HAYWARD, July 11.—Thieves entered the fruit and vegetable store of E. L. Martin, 840 Castro street, here last evening and made away with over $300, according to a report by Constable Al La Cunha, who is conducting a search for a missing party, suspected of being implicated in the robbery, today.

The store was entered between the hours of 8 and 10 last night, while Mr. and Mrs. Martin were attending the local moving picture show. Entrance was made through the rear, evidently by some one familiar with the store, according to Nightwatchman Fred Schilling, to whom the robbery was first reported.

A score of 8-2 in favor of the California Conserving Company's baseball nine completed yesterday's game between that organization and the San Leandro team, held on the local grounds. A home run with three men on bases and two outs brought the home team the victory.

Saturday night's dance of the American Legion and the G. A. R. at the Native Sons' Hall netted a substantial sum toward the maintenance of the Soldiers' Plot in the Lone Tree Cemetery.

Word from the A. W. Beams state that they have reached Seattle and are on the last lap of their return trip. They will visit relatives and friends there for a week or so longer, it is thought.

BOWLER STABBED, OPPONENT IS HELD

SAN JOSE, July 11.—Averre Mendoza, a laborer residing on the Los Gatos road, is at the O'Connor sanatorium dying from injuries sustained last night when he was slashed by a knife in the back by Juan de Santa Clara, in an altercation over a bowling score in a bowling alley here. Both men were under the influence of liquor, the police say, and neither knows what started the fight.

The place was almost deserted when the fight began and before any of the patrons could rush to Mendoza's aid, Juan had slashed him in the face, hands and chest, and, as the wounded man fell to the floor, Mendoza drew a knife from his belt and slashed the back of the other. The knife blade was broken by the force of the body falling, the point of the blade penetrating lung.

Mendoza was rushed to the sanatorium while Juan was placed under arrest pending the outcome of Mendoza's injuries. Little hope is held by physicians for his recovery.

Goethals May Build Cuban Road System

HAVANA, July 11.—President Zavala is expected to leave about August 1 for Santiago de Cuba to inaugurate work on a system of national highways that will connect the capital and principal interior cities.

The name of Major General G. W. Goethals, who visited Cuba last month, was mentioned at that time in connection with the selection of a chief of operations for the highways project.

CORSETS COMING BACK TO REVAMP MILADY'S FORM

LOS ANGELES, July 11.—Take a good firm hold on both strings and pull, for the corset is coming back. Waist-line circumferences will become smaller, also. This will mean added stress on the corset strings, more rigid fitting and additional rigors of exercise.

So far as youthful femininity is concerned the corset has been away for a long time.

The boys have missed it—in the shadow corners where stolen hugs are surreptitiously exchanged and in the full glare of the electric lights, where the arms of dancing partners were entwined.

The girls have missed it—in not having a firm foundation for sticking supporters and a rigid anchorage for detached skirts.

"Yes, femininity is to again don its armor," said Madame Adele, a widely-known corsetiere, formerly of Paris, who is connected with a popular Los Angeles establishment that caters to the world's best-known motion picture actresses.

"If one will refer to history, especially the history of France, it will be found that after each great war women go back to what were formerly popular forms of dress," continued Madame Adele.

LEGION LEADER IN DIVORCE SUIT

LOS ANGELES, July 11.—Temporary differences were blamed for the action of Mrs. Irene Wilson Pitts in filing suit for divorce here against Burton Pitts, commander of the Department of California, American Legion, on a technical ground.

Pitts has retained national prominence because of his devotion to the cause of ex-service men, especially disabled veterans. Part of his domestic infidelity is attributed by close friends to his constant efforts in behalf of former soldiers, sailors and marines.

Since his return from France, where he had the right knee shot away in the Argonne-Meuse offensive, Pitts has been active in the organization of the American Legion. He has been instrumental in the passage of the Sweet bill in Congress, which provided for increasing compensation and furnishing other means of aid in the rehabilitation of war veterans. He was elected State commander of the legion last August.

Crash Kills Rancher, Wife Fatally Injured

SAN JOSE, July 11.—Arthur E. Taggart, Los Gatos rancher, well-known here, was instantly killed and his wife, Alice W. Taggart, former San Jose girl, is in a Los Angeles hospital near death, as a result of their automobile colliding with a Southern Pacific train near Chatsworth in the San Fernando valley, according to word received from the southern authorities by the girl's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Williams.

Taggart was 41 years of age and owned a large amount of farming land near Los Gatos. His wife was prominent in the social set here. The couple were married in San Jose in 1912. Details of the accident were not available, the authorities stated, until their dispatch to the girl's parents.

Milan Food Charges Fixed by Commission

ROME, July 11.—The citizens of Milan are trying to bring down the price of foodstuffs by appointing a commission of experts to fix the prices at which the immense stocks of food accumulated by the wholesale dealers shall be sold.

Another commission consisting of members of the Chamber of Commerce watches the restaurants to see that the prices charged correspond to the reduced prices of materials used. The commission has authority to close any restaurants charging more than the prices permitted.

The first result of all this is that the cost of meat has gone down 20 cents a pound and other reductions are expected.

Alleged Bad Check Operator Is Caught

After an exciting chase of several blocks through crowded downtown streets today Alex Zolly, accused of passing a fictitious check, was arrested at Eighth and Clay streets by Policeman W. J. Hodgkins.

Three weeks ago, it is said, Zolly entered a shoe store of which John Wiggins, 482 Seventh street, is the proprietor, and bought two pairs of shoes for $18, tendering in payment an alleged bad check on the Farmers' and Merchants' Bank of Stockton, for $48. He was given a $30 change.

Today Hodgkins saw Zolly and gave chase. At Eighth and Clay Zolly ran into the arms of Policeman Hodgkins.

"Another Woman" Is Accused by Wife

SAN FRANCISCO, July 11.—Charging that during her absence in the East her husband had a clandestine affair with a married woman in Alameda county, Mrs. Mina B. Condon of 2224 Twenty-fifth street, today filed suit for separate maintenance against Walter G. Condon, proprietor of the Bay Shore Delivery company. Mrs. Condon declares that following their marriage April 29, 1919, they lived happily together until last August. Then, with his consent, she went to Ohio to visit her mother. On her return, she noticed that her husband's attitude toward her had changed. She could not understand it until she alleges, she learned of his fondness for the woman whose name or exact address she does not disclose.

U. S. Delegation Sees Canadian Waterways

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., July 11.—Members of the Great Lakes Tidewater Association, a delegation from Congress, governors of five states and a hundred or more business men of the East and Central West began a tour today of the route of the proposed Great Lakes-St. Lawrence deep waterway. Virtually all today was taken up by an inspection of the new Welland canal, upon which the Canadian government is spending $100,000,000.

STUDENT LABOR IN BUILDING U. C. STADIUM URGED

Graduate Seeks Approval for Co-operative Plan in Big Memorial Structure.

BERKELEY, July 11.—The huge athletic stadium to be erected at the University of California may be built by one of the greatest co-operative plans that has yet been conceived, according to P. S. Luttrell, a graduate of the university, who has evolved his plan. According to his plan, the stadium would be built entirely by the labor of students, who would donate their services to their alma mater.

Luttrell figures there will be approximately 5000 male students enrolled at the university during the coming term. If these 5000 would donate two hours of labor each day, it would amount to the same as 15000 men working eight hours a day.

DOXATION OF MATERIAL

His scheme also entails the donation of the building material to the university, thus making it a gift to the university at an actual cost of only a small percentage of that figure.

He says students in engineering at the university could take charge of the plans for the stadium, while members of the faculty could keep a careful check of the bookkeeping and in preparing lunches for the workers. Nearly the entire student body, estimated by him at 12,000, could join in the work for the great stadium.

His plan, contained in letters being mailed to graduates and others of the university, follows:

"Let the University of California build the great stadium in the world, as an everlasting memorial to those students who gave their all for country and home. Build it with the student labor of their part in honor, and their Alma Mater.

"Every student would deem it a privilege to do his part rather than to let the work done. Let the public dome the funds necessary to cover the cost of materials only. Funds will certainly be glad to loan needed equipment.

"Student engineers could make the surveys, draw plans, make blue prints, estimates, etc.—the faculty to check the work. This will be valuable practical experience in the course of study.

"Women students could handle the clerical work—bookkeeping, keeping, etc., and perhaps provide lunches for the workers.

SHAFT SUGGESTED

"Let the art students design a shaft to be cast with the names and the place of honor, and below this the names and year of all students who served. A day could be set aside for the casting of the shaft. The cost of the shaft could be covered by a 50-cent subscription from each student, or from salvage on material.

"Art students could design an 'entrance' or 'gate' to the stadium, the cost of which could come from the public in honor of those who actually performed labor in building the stadium—the name and year of each student to be cast thereon. The faculty would have this as an everlasting example for their students to build—not to ask others to do it.

"It is estimated that the attendance at the University of California will be in excess of 12,000 next semester. Surely 6000 able-bodied men can be found in this number who will give two hours of labor daily. This would equal the working hours of 1500 men at eight hours each.

"Let these young huskies show their red blood—and build the biggest stadium in the world!"

Gigantic Motor Is Installed in Columbia Mills

Only Machine of Type West of Chicago Will Drive Steel Rollers.

PITTSBURGH, Cal., July 11.—An important improvement in the Columbia Steel Roller Mill has just been made, in the installation of a 1500-horsepower Westinghouse motor, built especially for roller mill service.

There is said to be no other motor of this type west of Chicago. The cost of installation was $40,000, and by the use of this motor the 12-inch mill, which it drives, will be increased in capacity by 30 per cent. A remarkable feature of this motor is that it will stand an overload of 100 per cent for 15 minutes, thus enabling it to handle its work easily.

Another feature is that the installation was made in 125 hours. This motor replaces a 750-horsepower machine.

Sunday morning, the Rev. James Muir, pastor of the Congregational church, delivered his first sermon in Pittsburg. The subject of the sermon was "The Ideal Church."

Rev. Muir and family arrived last week from Watson, Cal. They have taken over the pretty home of John Thomas on West Eighth street.

San Ramon Valley Bank Holds Election

WALNUT CREEK, July 11.—At a meeting of the stockholders of the San Ramon Valley Bank, held Saturday, a dividend of 8 per cent was declared and the following directors elected: N. S. Boone, Arthur Burton, W. S. Burpee, A. P. Berges, C. H. Leach and W. A. Marshall, succeeded by E. J. Hutchison, deceased. N. S. Boone was elected president, Arthur Burton, vice-president; F. A. Marshall, cashier, secretary and treasurer; M. A. Hildguson, assistant cashier, and H. H. Daley, second assistant cashier.

COUNCIL DECIDES RICHMOND'S TAX FIGURES TONIGHT

Valuation Increase May Allow Cut in Rate in Making New Budget.

RICHMOND, July 11.—Steps for the improvement of the Macdonald avenue subway under the Southern Pacific tracks will probably be taken up by the city council at its meeting tonight, following the clearing up of the title of the last piece of property needed for the improvement, last week. The council must decide whether the improvement will be financed out of the general fund or by assessments against property on Macdonald avenue. The improvement will cost about $20,000.

The council, sitting as a board of equalization this week, will prepare the budget for the ensuing year. Although nothing regarding the probable amount of the budget has been given out, it is not believed that the tax rate will be increased this year. The fact that the assessed valuation of city property has been raised $1,400,000 this year will mean a considerable increase in expenditures, and may even permit a reduction in the tax rate.

Annexed Lands Send Deputies to Rome

ROME, July 11.—The new Italian parliament will have some striking characteristics. The provinces annexed to Italy in consequence of the great war are sending four Germans and five Slavs to their new capital to sit in the chamber of deputies and among the Slavs there is a priest, the Rev. Virgilio Schetz, who has been elected for the Gorizia constituency.

No priest has sat in the chamber since 1870, when the temporal power was lost to the pope. It was said that the vatican had forbidden this Slav clerical member to press his candidature, but the official announcement of his election is now published.

Youth Starts On Horseback Trip to Pennsylvania

BERKELEY, July 11.—The horse as a means for cross-country touring has not been entirely replaced by the gasoline-driven vehicle, as evidenced by the departure of Lewis F. Etter, 26 years, a former student of the university, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, on the back of a horse.

Etter's departure was announced today by Patrolman O. W. Wilson, who went to the home of the former student at 2005 Berkeley way to remind him that he had an overdue book from the public library. An effort will be made to "page" Etter somewhere between Berkeley and Salt Lake to find out where the book is.

Richmond Plans White Way Along McDonald Ave.

Merchants Will Add to Lights Contracted for by City With Power Company.

RICHMOND, July 11.—The installation of additional street lights on Macdonald avenue when the new electrolux system is installed by the Western States Gas and Electric Company within the next few months, is expected following the announcement that merchants on the avenue between Sixth and Seventh streets have contracted for the installation of 12 lights in that block instead of the four carried in the city contract. The cost of the additional lights will be paid by the merchants. The steel poles for the south side of the avenue have arrived in San Francisco, and work will probably begin in September, it is stated by Manager George N. Rooker of the power company. The delay is caused by the telephone company, which will not complete the placing of its cables underground until that time.

The system is to be installed by agreement between the city, the street car company and the power company, and all the present wooden poles will be eliminated.

YOLO CO. SHEEP GET TOP PRICES IN TEXAS SALE

Frank Bullard Wins With 51 Rambouillet On Auction Block.

WOODLAND, July 11.—Frank Bullard of the Bullard Brothers' Stock Farm, four miles north from Woodland, returned last night from Texas, where he entered an auction sale 51 Rambouillet sheep from the Yolo range. With hundreds of head ready for the block from the eastern and middle western sections, reaching from New York State to Nebraska, the Sacramento Valley stock brought the best price of the sale. As a result of the showing made by the local product Bullard took orders for two carloads of Rambouillet rams to be delivered to various flockmasters throughout those sections of the West where the standardizing of fleeces is becoming a hobby as it did in this valley many years ago. The Bullards have the largest range of Rambouillet in the West.

New "Green Armies" Battling Bolsheviks

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 11.—New "green armies" of 1000 to 10,000 each, are being formed north of the Crimea and are said to be operating effectively against the Bolsheviks in the Kuban district and as far as the north Caucasus region.

These armies are similar to the forces of the independent leader Makno, whose troops were disbanded during Wrangel's campaign.

GIRL KILLED IN AUTO SMASH

LOS ANGELES, July 11.—Selma Thompson, 22, was killed here yesterday when the automobile in which she was returning to Los Angeles over a beach boulevard overturned. Lee Mantell, who was driving the machine, is in jail, charged with driving an automobile while intoxicated.

An Ideal Attained

FOR nearly forty years JEVNE'S has provided superior food-stuffs to a people pampered by Nature's most prodigal gifts - California's discriminating public accustomed to the best the markets afford.

In order to merit the patronage of this fastidious clientele JEVNE'S has ever found it necessary to maintain a standard of Quality in their products so high as to foreshadow public demand.

As a result of this determination to give to even the most discriminating of people just a little better than is demanded there has been born the JEVNE Ideal - a standard so high that today many manufacturers of food products despair of its attainment.

This Ideal finds perfect expression in JEVNE'S MAYONNAISE - a delectable dressing that brings out the full glory of flavor while adding just the proper note of piquancy to many and varied foods.

Made of pure, carefully selected ingredients, scientifically proportioned, JEVNE'S MAYONNAISE is an achievement reflecting the JEVNE IDEAL attained.

EASTERN ATHLETES MADE BIG HIT BY COMING HERE FOR INVITATIONAL P. A. A. TRACK MEET

LOCAL P. A. A. OFFICIALS TO BE CONGRATULATED FOR STAGING OF MEET

Meet Was Great Success Even if Los Angeles Club Failed to Send Any Star Athletes.

By DOUG MONTELL

The boys who made Saturday's invitational track meet at Berkeley such a success are now on their way home, leaving behind memories of one of the greatest meets seen in these parts in recent times with all the fans who made the trip to the college town to see them in action. Such an occasion comes at rare intervals to folks in the west and those who were not fortunate enough to be able to take in the national meet in Los Angeles were on hand to look the celebrities over. Much has been said already of the events that took place in the Berkeley meet, but much more can well be said of the various performers.

The Pacific Association is to be congratulated for their wide awake action that made possible such a meet here. Herbert Hauser, Sam Condon and J. T. Kilwinski, did everything possible to put the meet over in big league style and both the athletes and the general public were well satisfied with their efforts. The fact the public turned out even better than had been expected so that the visiting athletes will receive medals for their work something that was not on the original program. The boys certainly deserve more than mere applause for their performances.

Walking Contest Makes A Hit With Customers.

The cash exhibitors got a kick out of the Exhibition this week. When the three starters began picking 'em up and laying 'em down the spectators began asking themselves what it was all about. The greater part of those present had never witnessed a walking contest before and the peculiar style of Pearmann (N. W. A. C.) who won, made a big hit with the crowd. A. J. and Albert (O. C.) were also in the contest but found the pace too fast for their gait and ambled in a little while.

The 440-yard run was one of the best events on the day's schedule. The faster half of the starters has not been seen in the west before for the quarter-mile and from start to finish the race was a nip and tuck affair. Driscoll of Boston had been figured by many to cap the event but he was upset when Shea of the University of Pittsburgh broke loose on the last turn and came in a winner in 1:12.3. The crowd would have been made had there been fewer entries for the runners were bunched up in the last turn and Shea, who was in the middle of the group, had no opportunity to cut loose until the straightaway was reached. Larry Butler, the Michigan captain, staged a game exhibition. Butler lost a shoe on the first turn but continued in the race and finished well up among them despite the great handicap.

Knorek Got Even for Defeat At Pasadena.

The pole vault produced some fine action with Graham of the Chicago Association and Knorek of the L. A. team competing for the title. In the southern meet Knorek took the Chicago boy into camp but Graham, who won the title at Pasadena, was not to be outdone. The two are the keenest of rivals and every time they look up is a time when the battle is on. Before the event is finally settled.

The 880 Saturday was not productive of anything that approached a record but it was a humdinger of a race from start to finish. The first quarter saw the field well bunched but in the second lap Cutbill of Boston unhooked a burst of speed on the back stretch and pulled ahead with ten yards to go. Brown, who was at the University of Pennsylvania, the institution made famous by the fact that Willie Smith, the Bruin football coach, graduated from it, set sail after Cutbill had passed him coming into the home stretch. Cutbill had sufficient reserve force to carry him past the tape a winner in 1:48.1.

Albers of the C. A. demonstrated his ability as a high jumper and took the event at 6 feet 1.75 without being pressed. The competition of the southern meet was missing, neither London of Yale nor Brick Muller being in the local meet. Brick Muller is still in a hospital in Los Angeles with a fever and it was due to this accident that he was unable to compete in the Olympic Club, that accounts for his not placing in the National championships.

Norton of Olympic Club Is As Good As Ever.

When it comes to hurdling our old friend Johnny Norton of the Winged "O" is still the best of the best of them. Norton was forced into second place in the high stakes Saturday by Krogness of Harvard competing for the Chicago team, but in the low obstacle race Norton came back strong and took the event in 1:42.1. Norton was the longest California yell leader, competing for the Olympians, ambled into third honors in the same event. It is worth the price of admission at any man's track meet to watch Red Drew lope over the hurdles.

The field events went off about as per schedule throughout. Halsey of Princeton, competing for the New York team, took the shot put and Wells of Illinois, competing for the A. A. C., took the discus. Brinkert of Stanford, wearing the Winged "O," grabbed the javelin throw and was not forced to extend himself to win. The Olympians had the meet bottled up before this event, the last crowd did not all remain to watch Hanner win from Goudin of Harvard and Hamilton of Missouri. Fourth place went to none other than our old coast champion, Ole Snedigar, so everyone went home satisfied.

The St. Louis Cardinals have recalled George Tipton, the best-talented second baseman from Syracuse. Whether he is to be attached to the team or used in a trade is not stated.

Although ten days have elapsed since the racing pigeons were liberated at Seattle, Wash., no birds have been reported to date and the local fanciers of the Pacific Homing Pigeon Club, who are competing in the TRIBUNE derby, are in fear of another smash.

The TRIBUNE derby, which is the one big race of the season, is over a course of approximately 700 miles, which will be a disappointment to enthusiasts of this sport, as many wagers were made that last year's record would be broken.

Seventeen racing pigeons of Seattle Racing Pigeon Club were received by E. M. VanAntwerp, secretary of the Homing Pigeon Club of this city, and were released at 4:15 yesterday morning for their long flight back from Seattle. The club made a sensational "get-away," making only one circle before hitting the trail for home. Seven minutes later the air-louists were released they had disappeared over the Berkeley hills.

The annual pigeon race of the Seattle Racing Pigeon Club is a sequel to the TRIBUNE derby, and a great deal of rivalry exists between the two clubs, as to the speed of their birds and the number of lofts reporting. The Seattle contingent has an edge on the local boys, as their first bird reported in four days last year, but the Berkeley lofts are sure of victory this year.

The Sherry Flour Company's publicity horns, who are gathering laurels as a "booster unit" for Oakland, were guests of the city of San Jose last week and came back heavily laden with messages from the San Jose City Manager to Mayor Davis, from the Chamber of Commerce to the local and San Francisco chambers, from the Rotary, and a message to a member of the TRIBUNE staff.

"Drifted," the official messenger of Mayor Davis, covered the distance from the Santa Clara valley to this city at the rate of 46 miles an hour. Tomorrow the Sherry flock will journey to Santa Cruz where they will be guests of the citizens for a day, the birds to be liberated Wednesday for their return flight to this city.

Tom Gibbons Right Man for G. Carpentier

By JAMES J. CORBETT, Former World's Heavyweight Champion.

Written expressly for the International News Service. NEW YORK, July 11.—George Carpentier vs. Tommy Gibbons. Here's a match that will be worth while. It ought to be a hummer; a match full of action. I imagine, too, that it would all be over in a flash. In Gibbons, the French champion would face a man of his own weight. Tommy weighs at 150 to 155 pounds, and there would be no more than three or four pounds difference between them. Under this circumstance Carpentier's title as world's light heavyweight champion would be at stake.

Without the title consideration, a Gibbons-Carpentier match would attract genuine interest. The French champion is intensely popular here, despite his defeat by Dempsey, and the boxing public wants to see him in action against a man of his own weight. Gibbons with twelve straight wins and a record of 15-0-1, is like an express train and a meeting between this pair is the one logical thing to expect. Gibbons is a fast fighter, his boxing ability and defensive tactics would come out, for I understand Gibbons is fast and clever. The best there is in an opponent, and it would go a long way to see this contest.

Gibbons will surely put a feather in his cap if he can take Carpentier and the confidence he has in himself must mean something, for he has seen Georges in action. Carpentier, who is a member of the St. Paul scrapper beat Jack Clifford in three rounds in Brooklyn with Georges at the ringside.

The St. Louis Cardinals played an exhibition game at Belleville, Ill., on June 29 and First Baseman Jack Pomeroy was hit in the head in a collision with a player of the Baltimore Orioles. Pomeroy was badly hurt and his scalp badly cut. The Cardinals, with pennant intentions and already short-handed, seem willing to take these chances in exhibition games.

The St. Louis Cardinals played an exhibition game at Peoria on June 30 against the Peoria Three-I League team. The Cards won 17 to 8. Jack Pomeroy was hit in the head in a collision with a player of the Baltimore Orioles. Pomeroy was badly hurt and his scalp badly cut. The Cardinals, with pennant intentions and already short-handed, seem willing to take these chances in exhibition games.

Instead of Buddy Napier, the Cincinnati management has decided to send Dewey Marshall to the Atlanta Braves. Marshall is the young collegian who turned down the Richmond Virginia League club to take a chance in the big show. He didn't get much chance under Pat Moran. His prospects would be altogether brighter had he first joined Richmond and worked his way upward.

Empire Bob Emmie, veteran of the National's staff, is out of a hospital in St. Louis, after treatment for a bruised knee. He was hit by a thrown ball when Pittsburgh was playing in St. Louis some two weeks ago. It will be some time before he is as spry about getting around as he was before the injury. His scolding forced that other cripple, Bill Klem, into regular service.

Reuben Cohen, the youngster who is trying out with the St. Louis Cardinals with the idea of taking Johnny Lavan's job when the Cards' shortstopper retires, has been taken to the hospital. Cohen has been taken to the hospital for a fall playing purposes. Sammy Bohne, it is believed, has changed his name from Cohen when he started playing ball. Just why these fellows think the name is a handicap is not clear.

The Pittsburgh club finally gets Calton "Tony" Brotem, and major league waiver price, which is about as cheap as it would have got him from Little Rock after Little Rock claimed Brotem from Washington last spring by Commissioner Landis, after Little Rock had made deals with both clubs. Miller has made good with Washington, but Brotem has failed to show any big league class. Pittsburgh takes him on because it is believed he can handle Moses Yellowhorse, who was his pitching mate at Little Rock last season.

There is quite an agitation against live bird shows in clothing and many clubs are switching to clay targets.

A Couple of Honest Thieves

The Oakland infield played a big part in slipping the Seals the short end of the series last week. The Seals found it a tough job driving base hits through the infield, particularly between second and third base, as Ray Brubaker at short and Babe Pinelli at third were doing good work for their bosses by robbing the Seals of many base hits.

No Speech Making When Hutchinson Is Given Golf Cup

NEW YORK, July 11.—Somebody "just handed Jack Hutchinson the cup" after he had won the British open championship, according to the American golfers' version of the much-discussed episode. Hutchinson arrived yesterday from Scotland.

"I guess they did not like me because I turned American. The only friends I had on the course were my father and the Americans in the gallery. After I had won, someone in the crowd just handed me the cup. There wasn't the usual speeches," he said.

Hutchinson's name was not engraved on the cup, as is customary. "We were in too big a hurry to get away. We can take care of the engraving here," he added.

Teamed with Tom Keegan, the new champion will play George Duncan and Abe Mitchell, the British invaders, a 72-hole match today at the Pelham Country Club for a $1000 purse.

A Pittsburgh critic, talking about pitchers who don't know how to work a change of pace on batters, declared Whitey Wagner of the Pirates has the best change pace in the National League. Batters can't tell his fast one from his slow one until it gets under way.

Diggins Will Make J. Nunes Step Lively

Edie Diggins, the amateur lightweight, who is billed to meet Johnny Nunes in the main event of the boxing show to be staged at the Oakland Auditorium next Thursday night, became a much excited youngster yesterday upon learning what Nunes had to say about his chances of sticking the route. Nunes, who is no beginner in the four-round game, but who has met the best of amateur lightweights around here, said that Diggins didn't have a chance to go the full course against him. Now Diggins is on the warpath and he promises to make Johnny wish next Wednesday night that he hadn't made such a remark.

No doubt, Nunes will be somewhat surprised when he meets this "As a creditor nation, we must view the situation from an entirely different angle than formerly when we occurred as the debtor nation." We have, by reason of reducing the gold reserves of Europe, augmented our own gold reserve of the United States. But it must be regarded that we are but the custodians for the reserves and that the prosperity of our country will depend directly upon our protecting that reserve from excessive industrial consumption, and by utilizing the same to the best possible advantage in extending further credit to the countries with which we trade.

"We are now the international banker, and henceforth we will be forced to assume a broad international financial relationship. Because of this fact the United States must assume the responsibility of maintaining its normal gold production of $100,000,000 in the interests of maintaining the world's credit system."

"The gold production of the nation has increased greatly since the war—half that amount; and the gold mining industry will be subjected to still greater pressure with continued increase of ore reserves unless immediate action is taken to render the industry profitable.—The Mining Congress Journal."

PORTUGUESE WOMEN OPEN STATE MEET

Three Hundred Delegates to Convention Attend Church
Then March to Native Sons'
Hall, Preceded by Bands

Three hundred delegates from the councils of the state of California are gathered in Oakland today for the opening of the twenty-first annual convention of the supreme council of the Sociedade Portuguesa Rainha Santa Isabel, a Portuguese women's fraternal order, to continue until Thursday evening and close with a ball in the Oakland auditorium.

Gathering today at 9 a. m. in the Native Sons' hall at Eleventh and Clay streets, the delegates after an informal reunion formed in parade array and marched to St. Joseph's Roman Catholic church at Seventh and Chestnut streets where a high mass was said.

Marching in the parade were the bands of the local Portuguese men's lodges, and the drill teams of the East Oakland and the Berkeley councils of the order as escorts of honor to the supreme officers of the order and to the assembled delegates. Following the church services the delegates disbanded to regroup again at Native Sons' hall where with Supreme President Mrs. M. C. Freitas in the chair the first business sessions of the convention were opened.

Tonight there will be a reception to the visiting delegates by the local councils at the auditorium opera house.

The program for tomorrow includes business sessions in the morning and afternoon with initiation ceremonies for a large class of candidates at 2 in the afternoon. In the evening will be presented an historical drama in the Portuguese tongue entitled "D. Filipa de Vellheira."

FAMINE RELIEF PLANNED.

Funds raised from this performance which is expected to be generally attended by the local Portuguese colony will go toward the relief of famine conditions in the Cape Verde islands. Between the acting play songs and musical offerings by Portuguese artists from Portuguese composers will be rendered. The orchestra will be under the direction of Maria B. de Camara.

Wednesday the convention will have morning and afternoon business sessions and during which a new set of officers for the coming year will be chosen. A banquet to the retiring officers is scheduled for Wednesday evening and on Thursday evening there will be a public installation. Following the installation, at 9 p. m. will be the ball at the auditorium to bring the convention to a close.

Summer Pageant Is Planned in Berkeley

BERKELEY, July 11.—A summer pageant will be produced in the new outdoor theater in Codornices park, according to plans announced by Mrs. C. C. Boynton, a leader of Berkeley's esthetic dancing colony. Mrs. Boynton will have charge of the pageant, which is part of the pageant, with the music under the supervision of Henry Jansen, Jansen's compositions, which were used in the pageant, given by the Berkeley Women's Club of California recently in Yosemite valley, will be again used in this festival.

The date for the production has not yet been decided upon and the theme is now being worked out by Mrs. Boynton. Several hundred Berkeleyans will participate in the affair.

Woolley Says Report Of His Death Wrong

BERKELEY, July 11.—Thomas Woolley, former railroadman, wants the world to know that he is not dead. Though his obituary has been printed in Fresno newspapers, Woolley today asserted that he was alive and feeling reasonably well, with no prospect of reaping a final reward for a good many years.

For a number of years, before coming to Berkeley, he was city marshal at Colusa, and is widely known through that section of the state.

Fined for Driving Auto Over Fire Hose

BERKELEY, July 11.—Norman W. Shaw, a draftsman, of 2725 Haste street, Berkeley, and Peter Motto, a merchant, of 5122 Lawton street, Oakland, were each fined $10 this morning by Police Judge Robert Edgar for driving automobiles over a fire hose. The offense is alleged to have been committed more than a week ago at the upper end of Dwight way.

John Nimmo, a chauffeur, of 1920 Cedar street, was fined $10 this morning for speeding.

Alleged Burglar Is Held to Answer

Frank H. Kain, who was captured after a chase of three blocks after he is alleged to have stolen jewelry from the home of Miss Hattie Scott, 250 Oakland avenue, was held to answer to the superior court this morning on a charge of burglary by Police Judge Mortimer Smith.

Kain was surprised at work when Miss Scott returned home. She told the court that she heard a noise in one of the rear bedrooms and was afraid to go into the house. She closed the front door and walked around in the rear door just in time to see Kain climb over the back fence.

She called for help and Nether Scott, a parcel post driver, but not a relative, gave chase and cornered Kain in the home of Miss Ethel Harrington, 207 Orange avenue. He held him there until Police Inspector V. J. Coley arrived on the scene. Kain was represented by Myron Harris.

Alleged Gamblers Demand Jury Trials

Eight men charged with gambling, were arraigned this morning before Police Judge Mortimer Smith and pleaded not guilty to the charge. They demanded a jury trial. The date was set for July 25. They were arrested in a raid conducted by Sergeant James Walters at 814 Castro street. They are all out on $100 bail.

The men arrested are: Louis Lois, Mike George, Joe Palos, John George, Pete Allick, Perry Dallas, Louis Nakos and Nick Bude.

Wife Held While Girl Escaped, Claim

That she caught her husband at forty-seventh and San Pablo with another girl, that he held her until the girl escaped and then explained that he loved the little stranger, are allegations made in the divorce suit of Irene Lampan against Fred G. Lampan, which came before Superior Judge J. J. Trabucco today.

Mrs. Lampan, who lives at 707 Sycamore street, was awarded an interlocutory decree of divorce and alimony amounting to $15 a week for 75 weeks. Her husband is a candy maker.

Wind Off Ice Cools Church; City Swelters

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill., July 11.—With the thermometer registering above 90 degrees, Rev. Francis Ceyer of the First Methodist Church preached to a cool congregation last night.

Behind him on the pulpit twelve 100-pound cakes of ice had been placed before a large electric fan. Cool breezes played over the worshippers.

Artificial snow was scattered through the aisles.

HOUSE SHORTAGE EASES UP, CLAIM

CHICAGO, July 11.—Delegates to the national real estate convention will gather here tomorrow. The national house shortage in the large cities is starting to ease up, E. F. Taylor, of Portland, Ore., president of the Real Estate Men's organization, told the United Press.

The principal questions to be brought before the convention will be presented by committees, which have been studying the housing shortage, high price of building materials and high taxes.

"We hope to work out a method at this meeting whereby the man with a small income can build a home and pay for it just as he pays rent," Taylor said.

Erwin Kummer of Toledo, chairman of the committee which had the three main propositions under consideration, will recommend legislation to reduce taxes for the home builders of moderate means and a system of loans whereby homes may be built and paid for on installments, without the high interest charges which builders now must meet.

Seven thousand real estate men are here for the convention. Associated with Macomber in the work are A. J. Kell, Jr., of Pittsburgh, head of the taxation committee; Fred C. Smith, of the housing committee; and Charles Moffett of the legislation committee.

Thirty Tons of Coal On U. S. Ship Burned

PORTLAND, Ore., July 11.—Fire, which last night threatened the coal bunkers of the steel-constructed United States Shipping Board steamer Eastern Mariner, was contained under control early today, following frantic all-night work by the crew of twenty-five men, assisted by Portland firemen.

The loss is confined to about 30 tons of coal, which came into immediate contact with the flames. Owing to its steel construction the damage to the vessel was slight. Spontaneous combustion was given as the cause for the fire.

ZONING LAW HELD UP FOR LEGAL QUIZ

City Attorney Asked for the Rights of Contractors and Property Owners Previous to Enactment by Solons

All the zoning ordinances, including the Oak Park tract, were referred back to the city attorney this morning by the city council for further information. There is a question as to the rights of the contractors and property owners before the zones were established, and the cases of several dozen contractors and owners must be adjudicated.

The ordinance, divorcing the office of plumbing and sanitary inspector, and creating the sanitary inspectorship as a separate position, was given final passage. Joseph S. Ryan was named for the office, at $250 monthly.

All the votes of Commissioners Baccus and Edwards, the council abolished the office of senior clerk in the department of finance, giving the ordinance final passage. This was the civil service position held by William Fitzmaurice, former city treasurer.

Applications for $1000 to help defray the expenses of the Lions' national convention here, and $250 for the Bay Cities Physical Education and Recreation Association, were referred to the finance committee.

The first protest against the bay bridge project was received by the council from L. A. Moberly, secretary of the Atlas-Imperial Gas Engine Company. Moberly says that the project would have the best of it.

"Oakland as usual is getting the worst of the bargain," said Moberly. "The tunnel at San Francisco and all the free passage of boats, but the Oakland side is blocked by a trestle. Give us a tunnel at this end. Let the commerce develop. If there must be an under-water tunnel, let it be on this side. Now is the time for Oakland to put in her protest."

The communication was filed for later action.

Soft Drink Vendor Faces Mayhem Trial

Police Judge Mortimer Smith this morning held Herman E. Tyson to answer to the Superior Court to a charge of mayhem. His bail was fixed at $1000.

Tyson is alleged to have bitten off the tip of the index finger of John P. Summers in a fight June 6. Both men are partners in a soft drink parlor at Seventh and Broadway, where the fight is alleged to have been staged.

Alameda Rejects Train Proposal Urged by S. P.

ALAMEDA, July 11.—This city has rejected the compromise proposal of the Southern Pacific railroad and declared a fight to the finish in opposition to the proposed abandonment of the 5.46 a. m. train and boat to San Francisco and of the 1:15 a. m. boat and trains from San Francisco. Refusal of the special meeting of the City Council at 10 o'clock Sunday morning, which was attended by Mayor Frank Owsen, Commissioner Al Latham and L. J. Proctor and City Manager Clifford E. Lusk.

The Southern Pacific railroad was represented by L. Richardson, district freight and passenger agent, and C. A. Yeola, assistant trainmaster at Oakland. A number of protesters against the proposed change were present. They were: E. Weber, 2521 Eagle avenue; Max A. who took out building applications before the zones were established, and the cases of several dozen contractors and owners must be adjudicated.

House Is Looted of Booze and Clothing

SAN FRANCISCO, July 11.—House burglars entered the residence of William Vaisangiam, 1941 Hayes street, during the night and obtained liquor, jewelry and clothing to the value of $1120. The family were away over the week end. The liquor stolen was valued at $300.

COMMUTERS HEARD FROM

Max A. Nelson, musician, was chief speaker for the commuters who oppose abandonment of the 1:15 a. m. service, while C. E. Hayden, wholesale fruit and vegetable man of San Francisco, spoke for those who oppose abandonment of the 5:46 a. m. service. A letter from Conrad Treiber, secretary of the San Francisco Letter Carriers' Association, was also read.

PlACES HEAD IN GAS OVEN TO END LIFE

ALAMEDA, July 11.—Despondent over prolonged ill health, Edward Parsons Fish, aged 57, ended his life yesterday afternoon by placing his head in the oven of the kitchen gas stove after turning on the gas. He was dead when found by his wife upon her return to their home, 2303 San Jose avenue.

In his early life Fish was prominent as a newspaper man at San Jose. About 25 years ago he went into the insurance business in San Francisco, where he attained an equal prominence, maintaining offices in the Merchants' Exchange building. Five years ago, however, afflicted with an incurable disease, he retired from active business. He had lived in Alameda for more than thirty years.

Mrs. Fish had gone to visit their only child, Harold Fish, living not far away, for a few hours. When she left home Fish was in unusually good spirits, she declared.

New Pastor Occupies Pulpit in Berkeley

BERKELEY, July 11.—The pulpit of the Friends church, in Berkeley, was occupied yesterday for the first time by its new pastor, Rev. Charles A. Mott, formerly of Mt. Pleasant, Ohio. Rev. Harry A. Keats, evangelized superintendent of the Friends church in the State, introduced the new pastor to his congregation. Rev. John I. Huff was the former pastor of the church.

'Gas Meter' Will Be Topic for Employees

The Eastbay section, Pacific Service Employees' Association, will hold the first of a series of educational meetings this evening at 8 o'clock in the Pacific Gas and Electric Company's office, Thirtieth and Clay streets. The subject will be "Gas Meters."

In addition to those who appeared in person, City Manager Hickok will send a nearly a score of protesting letters.

The Sunday meeting was necessary in order that a decision might be reached in time to permit the Southern Pacific to incorporate the compromise time changes, which must be printed five days before becoming effective, July 17, the date set for the change.

The Southern Pacific offered in compromise for the trains and boats it is proposed to abandon to run "backbone" train from Oakland mole to Pacific Junction, Eighth street and Pacific avenue, which would connect with the 1:20 boat from San Francisco to Oakland, and another "backbone" train from Pacific Junction starting at 5:10 a. m. and connecting with the boat for San Francisco at Oakland pier. This latter boat would bring Alameda boats San Francisco slightly later than the present 5:46 a. m. train and boat. Opposition was based on the fact that neither train would circle the Alameda loop.

BAY PARLORS IN TRIBUTE TO FLAG
CARRIED IN WARCeremonies Recall Stirring
History of the Eighteenth Engineers.

Scores of Native Sons and Daughters representing practically every parlor in the bay cities, and city and county officials participated in the ceremonies at Golden Gate Playground when annual tribute was paid to an American flag, entitled to four gold service stripes for service overseas. The program was arranged by Claremont Parlor, Native Sons of the Golden West. This banner is owned by the Claremont Parlor and was lent Company A, Eighteenth Engineers in 1917, when that unit made public appeal here for a flag to take overseas with them.

Early in the war the Eighteenth Engineers went overseas and two years later, with a number of the men missing and survivors wearing four gold chevrons denoting two years' service in France, the Eighteenth Engineers returned, bearing the flag lent them by the Claremont Parlor.

PARADE IN STREETS.
Preceding the ceremonies a parade of members of the order and representatives of practically every Golden Gate business, civic and welfare organization was held on San Pablo avenue in the Golden Gate district. Three bands, including the Oakland Women's Band and several expert drum corps from the various Native Sons parlors, participated in the procession. The parade marched out San Pablo avenue and then counter-marched to Golden Gate Playground, where the exercises were held.

Leading Claremont parlor for its patriotism, William I. Trice, Grand Vice President of the Native Sons of the Golden West, made a stirring talk in which he paid tribute to the organization which contemplates so much to Americanism and ideals of fraternal bodies in an annual ceremony to the emblem of the United States.

To keep ever green the memories of those fighting Californians who fell in France, a redwood tree was planted in Golden Gate Playground by the Native Sons. Little Annie Hopp was the sponsor and Charles McEnerney, grand trustee of the order, delivered the address.

PARADE'S TRIBUTE.
The country can ever be assured of its safety while such organizations as Claremont Parlor pause to pay tribute to the nation's flag and to valorize the men who courage and valor it symbolizes, former Governor George C. Pardee, speaker of the day, said.

"It was an excellent mark of patriotism of the Claremont Parlor to send this flag to France; but a far finer mark of this organization's patriotism was the fact that thirty-seven of its sons have overseas as Americans and California's sons some of them not to return."

"Such patriotism has always been typical of the Native Sons of the Golden West and the country can ever be assured of its safety while organizations such as this can pause to pay tribute to the country's flag and remember the devotion and valor it symbolizes."

H. T. Burns acted as chairman of the day. Musical numbers included "I Love You, California," sung by Charles Jensen; "The Little Tree," by Elizabeth Irwin; and "See Spangled Banner," by Edward Stearns. Fred A. Campbell, school director, read an original poem, "Our Flag."

DIVISION HEADS OF MOTHERS TO SEEK RETIREMENT

The state board of the California Congress of Mothers will meet tomorrow in San Jose at the residence of the president, Mrs. Harry J. Ewing. Resignation of several department chairmen will be presented at this first executive session since the annual convention in Oakland last May. Mrs. Herbert Stockton of Los Gatos, chairman of publicity during the past year, will offer her resignation. Although she still retains a place on the state board by virtue of her office as president of the second district, Mrs. W. H. Murston of Berkeley is expected to resign as chairman of the extension department.

Mrs. W. J. Wilson of Newcastle has already sought retirement as head of the legislative department.

Among the Oakland women who will be in attendance are Mrs. D. C. Tardy, chairman of the state budget committee, and Mrs. D. J. Kramer, local federation president.

Requiem High Mass
At McCarthy Funeral

SAN FRANCISCO, July 11.—A requiem high mass will be sung in St. Patrick's church tomorrow morning for Charles C. McCarthy, manager of the National Ice Cream Company, who died last week following an operation for appendicitis. McCarthy was born in San Francisco, where he was a member of the Native Sons of the Golden West and several business organizations. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Marie C. McCarthy; two brothers and two sisters: Thomas, John P. and Edward P. McCarthy; Mrs. W. L. Hickey and Sister Perpetua of the Holy Family convent.

Interment will be in Holy Cross cemetery.

Playground Dancers to Take Part in Recreation Pageant

MISS LOUISE JORGENSEN, Oakland girl, who achieved honors in the dance in New York, will be a principal in the pageant of the Hidden Treasure, to be presented Saturday in Mosswood Park by the Oakland Recreation Department. The performance will be repeated before the American Physical Education Association convention in this city July 19.

General Public Is Invited to View Play Depicting Various Periods

Miss Louise Jorgensen, Oakland girl, returned from New York, where she has achieved honors as an interpretive dancer, will take the role of "The Spirit of the Hidden Treasure" in the "Pageant of the Hidden Treasure," which the Oakland Recreation Department will put on before the annual convention of the American Physical Education Association. Several hundred dancers chosen from the playgrounds of the city will participate in the outdoor spectacle under the direction of Mrs. E. A. Hollington. Final rehearsals of the many groups will be held Wednesday afternoon in Mosswood Park.

The first production of the Pageant will take place on Saturday next at 2:30 p. m. The general public is invited to view the colorful dances which will represent the Indian, the pioneer periods and the Four Golden of California.

The convention production is scheduled for Tuesday afternoon, July 19. Spectator seats will be reserved for delegates.

Humility is the first lesson we learn from reflection.

LAW VIOLATION
FORCED BY LACK OF CLASS ROOMSWest Oakland Situation Is Worrying the Board of Education.

Two great immediate problems now face the Board of Education as the result of the increased school population, and the educational experts are now racking their brains to solve them.

The increase in school population was not even throughout the city. Some districts are more crowded than others. Prescott school in West Oakland holds all records. It has become the "white elephant" of the school department.

SIX CLASSES IN THREE ROOMS. Prescott was designed for 800 pupils. It now houses 1400 and its two annexes, with six extra classrooms, crowd out the playground. There are nine buildings altogether, and in three rooms six classes and teachers operate in turn.

Conditions at Prescott, it is admitted, practically constitute a violation of the State law, which demands a full school day for every child. At Prescott it can't be done.

"We cannot continue much longer in this fashion," admits Business Manager Lloyd Larzee. "Prescott is a school which cannot at present perform functions which are vitally necessary. Take shop work, for instance. If anyone needs shop work, it is these West Oakland children, who will some day probably gravitate to shops and trades. We cannot furnish the shops at present because there isn't room."

PRINCIPAL'S SUGGESTIONS.
Principal G. E. Mortensen of Prescott suggests the buying of a lot some distance away, and building to take care of the overflow. The Board of Education is considering this plan.

Another "bulge" in the Oakland school department is the part-time school in the rear of Vocational High school. Last year an old building was renovated for this school. This year it has 300 or more pupils. "There is no place to put anyone," say the part-timers.

Expansion of Prescott and part-time schools will be, it is admitted, a first order of business for the new school term.

Firemen and Sailors
Vote On Wage Cut

Marine firemen and sailors are voting today on the question of accepting the 15 per cent reduction proposals of the Steam Schooner Owners' Association. It was announced that the marine stewards and cooks have voted 214 to 24 to return to work under the reduced scale, but on steam schooners only. Cooks and stewards will be paid $100 a month, instead of $110 and the galley help is reduced from $75 to $60. The overtime allowance, under the agreement, is cut from 50 cents to 30 cents an hour. The men have been on strike since May 1.

BOY KILLED, FIVE
HURT, AUTO TOLL
OVER WEEK-ENDDriver of Death Car Is Held
On Charge of Reckless Driving.

A 4-year-old boy is dead and five persons are suffering from more or less serious injuries today as a result of several automobile accidents in the bay region over the week-end.

The dead: MARTIN MILLER, 4 years old, son of Mrs. John Miller, 827 Dolores street, San Francisco.

The injured: J. W. DEAN, 1521 Julia street, Berkeley; both jaws broken, a deep wound over the eye and an artery severed.

MRS. CHARLES COCEY, Mrs. Dean's mother, residing at the same address; cut about the face and head.

KENNETH LORD, of Walnut Creek, badly wrenched back, fractured left wrist and bad body bruises.

MISS MYRTLE LORD, his sister; cut and bruised about the head and body, suffering from shock.

DRIVER OF CAR HELD.

Martin Miller died in the Emergency hospital, San Francisco, early yesterday morning from injuries received when he was struck by an automobile driven by John Moore, 3495 Twenty-first street, San Francisco. Immediately after the accident Moore was taken into custody by the police and held charged with reckless driving. Manslaughter charges will probably be preferred against him, officials said today.

The accident occurred on Twenty-second street, between Fair Oaks and Guerrero, San Francisco.

Dean, his wife and mother-in-law, were hurt when a broken steering knuckle last night caused their automobile to swerve into a telephone pole near Irvington. The car turned over, throwing the occupants to the pavement. The other member of the party, Jack Dean, the 5-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Dean, escaped injury. The injured persons were taken to the San Leandro hospital by passing motorists.

AUTO FORCED OFF ROAD.

Lord sustained slight injuries and his sister was bruised and cut last night in an automobile accident near Niles, north of San Jose, according to information received here. Both had narrow escapes from death. They were traveling in their automobile from Oakland to San Jose, when, on the highway south of Niles, they were forced off the road by a touring car, which failed to slow down, according to witnesses. Striking the soft dirt at the side of the road the Ford car turned turtle. Miss Lord was thrown free of the car and only slightly bruised, but her brother was pinned beneath it and sustained a badly wrenched back, a possible fracture of the left wrist and numerous cuts and bruises. Witnesses to the accident failed to obtain the license number of the speeding auto which caused the trouble.

11-Year-Old Hero Saves Boy
Swimmer at Municipal Camp

WHAT would have been the first casualty from swimming at the Oakland municipal summer vacation camp, in the Stanislaus national forest, on the middle fork of the Tuolumne river, was narrowly averted recently when Tony Souza of Oakland, an 11-year-old camper, hearing the cries of another boy who had swum beyond his depth, dove into the water, swam to the spot where the lad had disappeared for the third time, and after a struggle, dragged him to the shore.

The boy who so narrowly escaped drowning was not a member of the Oakland municipal camp. He went to the swimming hole from the Hetch Hetchy construction camp for a swim with the boys who were in the water under the supervision of J. Withington, one of the camp directors.

When the Oakland boys were called from the water, the young visitor remained. Most of the boys had left with Withington, when the swimmer found himself beyond his depth and screamed for help. Tony Souza heard his cries and swam to the spot where he was battling with the water to keep from sinking.

The drowning boy, 11-year-old Souza, tightly about the neck and his rescuer had to strike him on the head, rendering him unconscious before he could swim with him to the shore. The youth recovered rapidly when first aid was performed by camp directors and several boy scouts.

JUDGE SAMUELS SIGNS AS SEAMAN UNDER PULCIFER

Judge Harry W. Pulcifer, who presides over the Oakland Township Justice court, is to undertake a new job.

Beginning tomorrow morning, when the dawn has broken and the tide is right, he will underwrite the task of making an able seaman of Superior Judge George Samuels.

The latter is rated as "some punkins" when it comes to handling a court trial or wading through 30,000 pages of attorneys' briefs and discarding the 29,000 pages of chaff, but he admits he doesn't know a companionary from the main deck, nor a spanker from the anchor chain.

Judge Pulcifer is the owner and skipper of the "Kunalu," a trim little steam launch, in which he spends most of his spare moments, when he isn't breasting the waves in the Alameda surf or taking a run on the beach. Also, he formerly was commodore of the Etchinal Yacht club and is regarded as a past master in things nautical.

Tomorrow morning the two jurists will embark on Judge Pulcifer's boat and cruise the waters of the Sacramento river, explored and unexplored, for a number of days. Also, they will seek to lure the elusive finny denizens of the deep from their hiding places to close acquaintance with a hook and line.

Judge Pulcifer declares that when they return he will have turned Judge Samuels into a first-class mariner, capable of navigating anything from a ferryboat to a Chinese junk.

CITY ASKS COURT TO CONDEMN PROPERTY

Condemnation of 300 feet of ground, 20 feet wide, along Escalador avenue, from Lakeshore avenue to Wesley avenue, is asked by the city in a suit before Superior Judge J. J. Trabucco.

City Attorney Leon Gray says that the municipality has offered the owners $3000 for the property, but that they are holding out for a higher figure.

Those made defendants in the suit are Martha Newland, Edward A. Newland, J. F. Carlston and H. C. Saggison.

FOLEY SECURES
DELAY IN PLEA
FOR NEW TRIALMisconduct Charged to Jury and District Attorney by Convicted Man.

Charging that the district attorney was guilty of misconduct, that jurors obtained information out of court, that members of the jury were guilty of misconduct and stating that new evidence had been discovered before Superior Judge George Samuels today and secured a stay of sentence for the convicted Alvarado bank robber, "Lefty" Foley, until this afternoon.

Deputy District Attorney Frank M. Shay opposed any continuance, declaring that Foley had a fair trial and had been properly convicted.

District Attorney Ezra Decoto appeared in court to personally prosecute "Little Goog" Rossi, alias William Albertson, the last of the "Thirty Strong," who is alleged to have shot the district attorney's brother-in-law, August May, president of the bank, during the robbery.

Attorney James Wesolo aroused the anger of Judge Samuels when he failed to appear to defend Albertson when the case was called. Wesolo telephoned that he was detained in police court by a case there.

Grocer's Money Is Stolen From Ice Box

G. D. Aleck, manager of a candy store at 1208 Washington street, reported to the police early this morning that $300 in cash was stolen from his ice chest. Aleck stated that he put the money there on Sunday evening when he closed the store. The case was investigated by Police Inspectors Joe Enright and Edward O'Donnell.

A New Idea About Thrift
as Applied to the Washday Problem

A woman used to be thought thrifty if she did all the baking, all the preserving, all the sewing, all the washing—in a word, if she toiled from morn till night, she was called "Thrifty."

The thrifty woman today is the woman who can get all these things done economically and still have time for recreation and self-improvement.

A thrifty solution of the washday problem will be found in the Family Laundry Service of the modern laundries of Alameda County. Their pound rate is so moderate there's double economy—many valuable hours saved, and release from the thrall of the tub. Any one of the modern laundries of Alameda County can take over the heavy duties of wash-day, leaving for you only the less irksome task of ironing a few of the lighter pieces.

Your bundle is called for and washed scrupulously clean by simple, sanitary methods that remove dirt and prolong the life of the fabric. Things like bath towels are fluffily dried; the flat pieces are wonderfully ironed. Your whole washing is finally returned to you as clean and sweet as only satiny-soft rain water and pure white soap can make it—returned punctually.

And it's so truly thrifty. The modern laundry you choose does three-quarters of the work of washday; you, only an agreeable one-quarter. The cost is surprisingly moderate.

Try this new Thrift—a telephone call to any one of the modern laundries of Alameda County will bring a route representative
